Key to Miami is presented to Ike by Mayor Chelsea Senerchia.

Admirers in Democratic Jacksonville mob GOP nominee's car.

Whether Florida changes its customary vote or not is a question, but the enthusiasm of the reception received by GOP presidential nominee General Eisenhower is not, you gather from these photos of his "invasion" there. In his Miami speech Eisenhower said, "No man, however honest, can clean up this mess if he is elected as the nominee of the administration which created the mess."

Calves Given For Scramble At County Fair

Beaver Kettle Farm and the Columbiana County Farm Bureau Federation are each donating a steer calf for the annual calf scramble which will be held next Friday at the Columbiana County Fair in Lisbon.

Members of the 4-H and Future Farmers of America between the ages of 14 to 18 will be eligible to capture the calf for permanent possession. The animal will then be cared for by the owner for a year and sold next year at the fair, the profit going to the owner.

Some 170 head of cattle have already been entered in the open class, Fair Board President Galen H. Greenstein announced today. The number does not include the 40 steers nor 4-H dairy cattle which are entered.

Other entries include 100 head of ponies, 300 poultry, 75 hogs and 75 sheep. Mail entries postmarked not later than Tuesday are still being accepted, Greenstein stated.

Final plans for the fair are presently underway. Two extra tents are being erected to accommodate the entries. A 40 by 80 foot tent will be used for the overflow of cattle entries and a 30 by 60 foot tent for the FFA entries and the hay show. Some 40 new stalls also are being built for the ponies.

3 Drivers Fined $81 For Traffic Violations

Three drivers, arrested recently by State Highway Patrolmen, on various charges were fined a total of $81 and costs in area courts. Martin Diemer, 31, of Pittsburgh was fined $61 and costs by Mayor Harry M. Vincent on a charge of operating an overloaded truck. Fined in other district courts were: Albert Smith, 33, of Youngstown, reckless driving, $10, and Richard Foster, 19, of RD 1, East Palestine, speeding, $10.

Wetzel To Confer With Eisenhower

Clarence L. Wetzel of Lisbon, Republican nominee for Congress from the 18th Ohio district, will confer in Cleveland Monday with General Eisenhower.

The meeting will include a luncheon in the Carter hotel, followed by a general conference on campaign matters of interest, General Eisenhower, in a telegram to Wetzel, urged his attendance at the regional conference.

Dems Seek To Drive Wedge Between Ike, Taft In GOP Ranks

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson's supporters tried today to drive a wedge between Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio in the Republican ranks.

They cited the defection of Col. Robert R. McCormick, editor and publisher of the Chicago Tribune, as an asset in their effort to capture the vital Midwest in the presidential race.

McCormick has advised Republicans to ignore both presidential nominees and concentrate on electing selected GOP members of Congress in preparation for a third party presidential effort in 1956.

A Stevenson aide told this reporter he regards this as a "major break" for the Democratic nominee in Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin and Iowa, where the Tribune circulates widely. These four states form the heartland of a Midwestern area where President Truman won his unexpected victory in 1948.

The Stevenson aide said he believes McCormick's views will affect many Republicans who supported Taft for the nomination, and still are angry that Eisenhower won in Chicago on the issue that Taft's backers had "stolen" delegates in Southern states.

The Stevenson camp apparently believes that McCormick's views won't affect many Democrats but will cut deeply into Republican ranks. The Democratic nominee's followers said they don't expect to harvest many Republican votes but they do hope that many GOP members will stay away from the polls in November.

In this connection, it was disclosed that representatives of the Illinois governor had made careful canvasses of the situation in Ohio and returned here with optimistic reports.

Ohio's Democratic Gov. Frank Lausche, a proved vote-getter, is

U. S. Jet Pilots Increase Score In Korea Air Fighting

SEOUL (AP)—The U. S. Fifth Air Force said U. S. Sabre jet pilots today rolled up a near record score for one day against Communist MIG jets—12 shot down and three crippled.

The best single day performance by the fast Sabres was last July 4, when they destroyed 13 Russian-built jets, damaged seven and probably destroyed one.

Bombers Also Active

A big force of Sabres swept across North Korea and destroyed the MIGs in a series of blazing dogfights. They flew cover for swarms of fighter bombers which struck Communist frontline positions. Allied losses, if any, will be reported in a weekly summary.

The intensified air action followed Wednesday night's strike by U. S. Okinawa-based Superfortresses against the Changjin hydroelectric plant in North Korea—newly-repaired from previous bombings.

Clouds covered the key power installation and the B29s used radar to aim their bombs.

The Far East Air Forces said in Tokyo there was no Red opposition and all the bombers returned. The number on the raid was not disclosed.

Plant Bombed Again.

U. S. Marine fliers knocked out Changjin's Plant No. 1—last night's target—late in 1950. Repaired, it was bombed in a big air attack last June. The Air Force said new repair work indicated the turbines were desperately needed to bolster the Communist power supply.

Winds up to 70 miles an hour and about four inches of rain lashed parts of the battlefield Tuesday and Wednesday.

Reds probed 11 times across the front Wednesday. Chinese troops felt out Bunker Hill near Panmunjom again this morning, then withdrew.

None of the skirmishes involved more than 25 to 50 soldiers.

Winona Phone Users To Fight Rate Hike

Winona residents, meeting in the Methodist Church there Wednesday, voted unanimously to fight a rate increase the General Telephone Co. is scheduled to ask in a hearing Monday in Columbus before the Public Utilities Commission.

The residents, who use the telephone company's service, feel the present base rate of $4.03 per month is excessive in view of the service given.

Delmar T. O'Hara, state representative, explained the rate increase to a group of 100 subscribers who attended. He will represent the group at the Columbus meeting.

Woman Arrested For Thefts Here

Parolee Held For Taking Checks, Money

A month-long series of check and money thefts in the city amounting to approximately $500, ended Wednesday afternoon with the arrest by police and T. G. Bryan, district postal inspector, of a 28-year old Salem woman.

Mrs. Lona Jean Hunter of 150 S. Lincoln Ave. was arrested at her home shortly after she had cashed a stolen check at a local service station. The service station operator and his wife provided police with the description which led to her apprehension.

Mrs. Hunter, on parole from the Women's Federal Reformatory at Alderson, W. Va. where she had been serving a sentence for similar thefts in the past, will be returned to parole officers, police said.

The woman admitted to police the theft of seven checks and of four billfolds and purses.

The checks were stolen from mailboxes at the homes of George K. Williamson, 1210 E. Third St., $42.77; Betty Barckhoff, 1556 E. State St., $26; Frank King, 318 S. Union Ave., $63; and Charles O'Connell, 1094 Cleveland St., two checks totaling $76.70.

Mrs. Hunter disclaimed knowledge of where she had obtained the remaining two checks or their amounts.

She also told police that she stole a purse at the Deville Grocery Store Aug. 14. She removed about $150 from the two billfolds which the purse contained, she said.

On Aug. 29, she said, she took a billfold containing $49 from a cubbyhole at the rear of McCulloch's Department Store, and also stole a billfold containing $55 from the ladies room in the Penn Grill.

85 View Methods On Area Farm Tour

More than 85 district farmers were on hand Wednesday for the tour of farms in this area, Floyd Lower, Columbiana County extension agent, said today.

Viewed by the farmers were labor-saving devices and practices, corn drying, improved pastures, dairy and beef herds and conservation methods. Discussions on equipment labor saving and electricity were led by I. P. Blausier, agricultural engineer at Ohio State University.

Farms visited included those of Richard Schneider, Glen Hahn and Marion and Olen Sanor in the North Georgetown vicinity and the Lester M. Burton farm on Route 165 a mile east of the Route 14 intersection.

The tour began at 9:30 a. m. at the Burton farm and ended at 4 p. m.

REDS TORTURE BISHOP — American-born Bishop Francis X. Ford, 60, was starved and died at the hands of the Chinese Communists, who accused him of espionage. The bishop, called by Cardinal Francis Spellman a martyr to the faith, was tortured and subjected to indignities, according to reports.

A tightening of the law to prevent Communists from holding union jobs or offices also was recommended by the Senate's internal security subcommittee in a report on its investigation of the Distributive, Processing, and Office Workers of America (DPOWA), an independent union.

The subcommittee made public sworn testimony in which the president of the union, Arthur Osman of Brooklyn, N. Y., and a number of other top officials were identified as Communists.

Osman refused to answer when asked if he ever had been a Communist, invoking his constitutional privilege against possible self-incrimination. Other officers of the union also balked at saying whether they are or ever were members of the Communist party.

The DPOWA, with some 65,000 members, was formed in October, 1950. When Osman was asked if meetings leading to its organization took place in Communist party headquarters, he declined to answer.

The hearings showed that Osman and others identified in the testimony as Communists had signed the non-Communist affidavits required by the Taft-Hartley Law to make the union eligible for certification as a bargaining agent by the National Labor Relations Board.

The society has been blocked plans for a Jaycee carnival booth here at which duck dentures would be awarded on a "you-ring-the-duck" basis.

The society threatened an injunction suit when it learned the Jaycee booth at the Tuscarawas County Fair Sept. 16-19 would sell duck dentures to patrons in the hope of winning a duck by landing a ringer around its neck.

Just to prove they weren't asking the ducks to do more than they would to raise money for flasher signs in city school zones, the Jaycees made new plans for a booth where the customers will buy pies and hurl them at Jaycee members who, of course, will duck.

No Agreement Made In Russell Strike

COLUMBIANA—No agreement was reached Wednesday afternoon towards the settlement of the 20-day-old strike at the F. C. Russell Co. here when plant officials and representatives of Local 3790, United Steelworkers, met at the Eagles Hall in Lisbon.

A Russell Co. official said he didn't think much progress was made. Another meeting is scheduled for the same place next Wednesday evening.

Two hundred-fifty workers have been idled by the strike. Fifty supervisory employees have been on duty at the plant. The strike began Aug. 16.

Ike, Confidence Up, Trailer Court Set To Open Fighting Owner Liable To Huge Fine

NEW YORK (AP)—Dwight D. Eisenhower formally opens his presidential drive in Philadelphia tonight with a brand new fighting personality won in two days of campaigning below the Mason-Dixon Line.

The Southern invasion wiped out the jitters in the Eisenhower camp. It put smiles back on the faces of Eisenhower lieutenants. And it set the stage for the next phase of the big push with the GOP nominee now in the role of a two-fisted fighter.

Gov. Sherman Adams of New Hampshire, one of Eisenhower's top advisers, told reporters: "From this moment on, the campaign will be as hard-hitting and vigorous as any campaign ever waged in your memory or mine."

Eisenhower himself apparently was well pleased with the results of the Southern tour — the first concerted Dixieland stumping ever done by a GOP presidential nominee.

"Do you think you made a dent in the Solid South?" a newsman asked as Eisenhower stepped from his plane here last night and flung up his hands in a gesture of happiness.

"I made a lot of friends," the general replied with a smile.

A short time later, Eisenhower told photographers outside his home: "I'll give you a good smile, because that's the way I feel."

Eisenhower will outline his views on foreign policy tonight before Pennsylvania Republicans — and a nation-wide NBC television and radio audience. He is expected to turn heavy criticism on the Truman administration's conduct of foreign affairs.

From Philadelphia he will push on to Chicago tomorrow, and then on Saturday to Kassel, Minn., where his path will cross that of Democratic presidential nominee Adlai Stevenson. From Kassel, he will go to Cleveland on Monday and to Indianapolis the next day.

It seemed almost certain that Eisenhower will hammer away in the days to come at what has now become the favorite GOP phrase — "that mess in Washington."

This was the big gun in his artillery in the South.

Adams said there will be "no pulling of punches" in the weeks ahead. "Eisenhower will make a hard-hitting campaign on things the people want to hear from a candidate," he added. "He'll continue the same tactics he started two days ago."

16 County Draftees Are Inducted Today

Columbiana County Draft Board 16 at Lisbon sent 16 men to Canton this morning for induction into the armed forces. They are:

Salem—Herbert A. Barry, Eugene E. Flint, John Paul Guiler, John Joseph Yuhaniak, Walter Rudolph Spack, RD 2, and Robert M. Hinchliffe, RD 2; East Palestine—Robert W. Merwin Jr. and Richard Glenn Selby, Lisbon—Kenneth E. Gray, Adam Tamati, James Paul Pezzano, Richard Eugene Carlisle, RD 2, and Joseph Edward Gruber, RD 4.

East Liverpool—Robert Keith Burson, Maurice Osborne and John Edwin Chavis, Wellsville—Charles N. Allison, John A. Wilkinson Jr., Rocco I. Yanko, Thomas Willard Hunter, Roy Virgil Teeters and Allyn Homer Fultz, RD 1; Ronald Harry Smith of New Waterford, Walter Vincent Mobley of RD 1, Kensington, Richard Lewis Stoller of RD 2, Beloit, Donald Eugene Wright of RD 1, Salineville, and Raymond Earl Zeitler of Elkton.

The court further found that Mr. Tice obtained copies of the ordinances in October of 1950 when he took possession of the property which he later purchased;

That he obtained the written consent of some of his neighbors to keep trailers on his property by telling them that he expected to keep not more than three trailers on said property, never mentioning that he expected to operate a trailer court there.

And that he obtained a building permit from Mayor Vincent for the wash rooms by telling the mayor that he wanted to build a laundry and garage for the residence then on the property.

The court found that the plaintiff had deliberately violated the ordinances of which he had full knowledge before he purchased the property.

Salem Blood Donors Urged To Register

Prospective donors are urged to call at the Red Cross office or phone 5219 to make appointments to donate urgently-needed blood for the armed forces when the Red Cross Bloodmobile makes its second current visit to Salem Sept. 11.

Salem residents contributed 140 pints of blood during the bloodmobile's last visit here last May and Red Cross officials are hopeful of topping that record on this visit.

No quota has been set for Salem. The American Legion home will be headquarters for the blood collection.

Tice Had Contested Constitutionality Of Salem Ordinances

In an opinion handed down Wednesday by Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp, the constitutionality of Salem's two business regulation ordinances was upheld and declared not discriminatory nor an unauthorized delegation of legislative powers.

The court found that the plaintiff, Irvin D. Tice, operator of a trailer court at 1311 S. Lincoln Ave., whose attorneys contested the constitutionality of the ordinances, deliberately violated the ordinances and denied his prayer for an injunction against prosecution under the said ordinances.

Court costs were taxed against Mr. Tice, and exceptions allowed to him. Bond for appeal was set at $1,000.

City Solicitor W. J. Hunston said that under the court ruling, unless an appeal is made and Judge Sharp's ruling reversed, Mr. Tice is liable to a fine of $50 per day for every day of his violation of the ordinances.

Culminated Legal Battle
Judge Sharp's opinion culminated a year and a half of legal battle over the issue.

In April of 1951 Mayor Harry M. Vincent found Mr. Tice guilty of violating the ordinances but sentence was delayed when Defense Attorney H. L. McCarthy requested a new trial.

The charges against Mr. Tice were brought by a group of S. Lincoln Ave. residents who said that Mr. Tice had obtained the necessary signatures from them on a petition asking permission to put only three trailers on his property.

The residents said they signed the petition but that their signatures were obtained under false pretenses since they did not know he was intending to operate a trailer court. At that time there were nine trailers on the property and newspaper advertisements had been identifying it as a business.

Following Mayor Vincent's findings on the matter, counsel for Mr. Tice filed a petition in Common Pleas Court for an injunction to prevent his being prosecuted by the city, claiming the ordinances to be unconstitutional.

Judge Sharp's docket entry states that the pertinent ordinances are "constitutional and valid, clear and specific, that they are not discriminatory but apply to the entire city and that the provision that two-thirds of the owners of affected properties may consent to the operation of a business in their vicinity is not an unauthorized delegation of legislative powers."

The court further found that Mr. Tice obtained copies of the ordinances in October of 1950 when he took possession of the property which he later purchased;

That he obtained the written consent of some of his neighbors to keep trailers on his property by telling them that he expected to keep not more than three trailers on said property, never mentioning that he expected to operate a trailer court there.

And that he obtained a building permit from Mayor Vincent for the wash rooms by telling the mayor that he wanted to build a laundry and garage for the residence then on the property.

The court found that the plaintiff had deliberately violated the ordinances of which he had full knowledge before he purchased the property.

McGrath To Be Called In Probe

Closed-Door Talks With Caudle Continue

WASHINGTON (AP)—A House investigation of the Justice Department had an open date today but Chairman Chelf (D-Ky.) announced its next star witness will be former Atty. Gen. J. Howard McGrath.

McGrath, who was fired by President Truman shortly after his first appearance before the committee last spring, is slated to appear on Sept. 15 in public session.

Meanwhile, the committee planned to continue a closed-door session with T. Lamar Caudle, ousted by Truman from his post as assistant attorney general last November.

The next hurdle with the Wadsworth, N. C., lawyer who once headed the government's criminal and tax prosecuting agencies will take place tomorrow.

Caudle indicated in an executive session on Tuesday that he has a lot of information to pass on to the probers.

And it is expected he will be quizzed about the committee's latest exposure: the case of a government attorney getting a "gift" of $750 from a law firm in 1947 after a government case was dropped against the Carnation Milk Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Caudle was chief of the Criminal Division at the time.

James A. Mullally, whose resignation came quickly last month after he was suspended from his Criminal Division post, testified he received $750 from Gordon L. Eakle, a former departmental colleague who quit in 1946 to enter private practice.

It wasn't a fee and it wasn't compensation "because I did nothing to earn it," Mullally told the committee.

He said the whole thing started with a telephone call from John Acker, counsel for Carnation, who once had been a government lawyer.

Mullally said Acker asked him about a case the Food and Drug Administration brought against his concern in Buffalo because two shipments of evaporated milk didn't contain as much vitamin D as their labels claimed.

Mullally said he knew nothing about the case. But he did "mention" to Acker that their old mutual friend, Eakle, was in private practice here and that an associate, Irvin Goldstein, formerly worked in the food and drug section.

It developed that Carnation retained Eakle's law firm and within a short time the Justice Department signaled the U. S. attorney at Buffalo to drop the criminal prosecution and send the concern a warning letter instead.

In April, 1947, Eakle collected a $3,000 fee from Carnation. And, as both Mullally and Eakle testified, Mullally received $750, less two or three hundred dollars which represented a debt he owed Eakle.

Eakle told the committee that Mullally "needed the money so I gave it to him."

Each testified he did not consider it a fee, and saw nothing wrong with it. But Mullally said he wouldn't repeat it if he had it to do again.

Vincent A. Kleinfeld, the Justice Department lawyer who was in charge of food and drug cases, testified a recommendation that the criminal prosecution should be dropped was reached by him and James E. McInerney, who then was Caudle's first assistant.

McInerney testified that he had no recollection of the case.

Lisbon Man Committed After Sanity Hearing

LISBON—Paul Zitto, 38, of E. Washington St. was committed to the Massillon State Hospital Wednesday during a Probate Court sanity hearing after he failed in an attempt to kill Clyde V. Hadley local garage owner, the same morning.

A jammed gun saved Hadley's life when Zitto pulled the trigger twice. No motive was given for the attempted shooting.

Zitto was arrested by Patrolman John Varner shortly after the incident at 7:30 a.m. Varner found Zitto working on the gun—a 32-automatic, trying to get it back into operating condition.

Football Team To Participate In Preview

LEETONIA—Plans and arrangements have been completed for the Leetonia High School Bears football team to participate in the "Pigskin Preview" to be held at McDonald Saturday.

The Bears will meet Lowellville in a fifteen minute game at 8 p.m. Three other games will be included on the preview program scheduled to begin at 7 p.m. The Bears lost the services for several weeks of Tony Less, a promising candidate, who received a dislocated elbow in a scrimmage session.

Two-day practice sessions were held under the direction of Coach Robert Gibson and his assistants, Joseph Bernard and Harry Krall, Jr. until the opening of school, Tuesday. Coach Krall will have charge of the Junior High School football program.

THE MONTHLY meeting of the Leetonia Sportsmen's Association will be held at the Cherry Valley Club House tonight at 7:30 o'clock. Degree team practice for inspection will be held following the meeting of D. Wallace Rebeckah Lodge, No. 279 Tuesday evening, at the lodge hall. A benefit "500" party will be held at the lodge hall tonight.

The Columbiana County Mobile X-ray unit will be at the Dan Dee Chip Plant Friday from 10 a.m. to 12 noon. Any adult of the district may visit the mobile unit for the chest X-ray, which is a free service offered by the Columbiana County Tuberculosis and Health League.

2 Of Escaped Lima Inmates Are Caught

LIMA, O. (AP)—An alert Lima State Hospital guard last night helped capture two of three inmates who escaped from the hospital the day before.

Guard Henry Icenogle called a state highway patrolman who picked up John T. O'Brant, 51, formerly from South Bend, Ind., and Michael Chepak, 33, burglar from Youngstown, O.

Neither offered resistance when they were recaptured along railroad tracks about a mile from the hospital. Still at large is John Auld 33, Toledo, O., who had been serving time for armed robbery.

Icenogle and his wife saw the pair when they were out riding. Icenogle called Patrolman Tom Garlock, who helped him capture the pair.

AIR SHOW TRAGEDY—An F-89 jet fighter plane breaks up in the air at Detroit, Mich., while flying in a demonstration at the International Aviation exposition. The plane disintegrated while pulling out of a dive. Plane at right was participating in demonstration also but was not involved. Major Donald Adams was killed.

Can't Market Excess Tobacco For Polio Fund

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Joe L. Cowart wanted to be a good Samaritan—but the government wouldn't let him.

Cowart, who raises burley tobacco on his Fayette County farm, discovered that he overplanted his 5.9-acre allotment by one-fifth of an acre.

He wanted to know if he could market the excess with the income going to the March of Dimes to aid polio sufferers.

"Unfortunately no," said a Department of Agriculture official. So today he is going to plow it under.

Governor Of Louisiana May Back Eisenhower

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP)—Democratic Gov. Robert Kennon of Louisiana may back Republican nominee Dwight Eisenhower for the presidency.

Kennon, who has criticized Gov. Adlai Stevenson, the Democratic presidential candidate, spoke favorably of Eisenhower and the GOP platform at a press conference yesterday and added:

"I expect to have an announcement this week end on the national political situation."

U. N. May Discuss Korean War

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—A call for a U. N. vote of confidence in the Korean truce negotiators was regarded here as a logical way of renewing Assembly discussion of the Korean War.

U. S. Delegate Ernest A. Gross said Monday that the U. S. would favor such a discussion this year although the U. S. opposed it last year on the grounds that such debate might interfere with the talks at Panmunjom.

Louisiana To Name 3 New Dem Electors

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Three more Democratic presidential electors will be named in Louisiana this week to succeed those who quit in protest over Gov. Adlai Stevenson, the party's nominee.

Of the original 10 electors, four have announced they will not resign. Three of the six who quit have been replaced.

The six electors quit because of Stevenson's opposition to state control of tidelands or because the Illinois governor was put on the ballot under the Louisiana Democratic party's traditional rooster symbol.

Mac's Briefing Room Now Is Concert Hall

TOKYO (AP)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur's old war briefing room will be opened to the public soon as a concert hall.

The newspaper Asahi said the famous Dai Ichi Building auditorium will be made available to musicians unable to pay for a commercial hall. The auditorium was used as a briefing room by MacArthur and his successors, Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway and Gen. Mark Clark.

Maryland To Continue To Censor Movies

BALTIMORE (AP)—Hollywood has been "deviating from the (decency) code" and Maryland censors will continue to use their scissors on films, the state Board of Censors said yesterday.

Atty. Gen. Hall Hammond recently told the board that in the light of a recent Supreme Court decision, it seemed to be without power except to cut films which are obscene and indecent.

The censors in their annual report to the governor indicated there was still plenty of work cut out for them in the obscene and indecent department.

Seek Vote Of Confidence For Truce Talkers

LONDON (AP)—The United Nations General Assembly will be asked to give the U. N. truce negotiators at Panmunjom a vote of confidence, informed diplomats said today.

These sources said the 16 countries with troops in Korea will sponsor a resolution in the Assembly, which opens Oct. 14 in New York, reaffirming U. N. support for the Korean War and for the truce talkers. The negotiators are all U. S. military men.

Although the Soviet bloc will undoubtedly vote against the resolution, its sponsors hope to get the overwhelming backing of most other members as a demonstration of U. N. solidarity.

Diplomats here said the resolution is expected to ask for a U. N. endorsement of the negotiators' refusal to return Red prisoners of war who don't want to go home.

Tavern Owner Hunting $1,600 Beer Case

GOBLES, Mich. (AP)—Tavern owner Earl McNamara scoured the countryside yesterday looking for an empty beer case.

It wasn't just an ordinary case, but one in which McNamara hid his Labor Day receipts of $1,600.

In the rush of business, he sold the case full of beer to four men.

and remembered a short time later what he had done. Yesterday one of the four returned to the tavern and, upon questioning by McNamara, said the men drank the beer and threw the case away.

Maryland Governor Returns Gift Money

BALTIMORE (AP)—Maryland's Gov. Theodore R. McKeldin has returned the cash gifts given him by some "old friends" at a dinner party recently.

He said last night that he has mailed a check to B. Herbert Brown, the Baltimore Republican who arranged the dinner, and has asked Brown to distribute the money.

The governor's acceptance of the purse has been the target of several highly critical statements issued by former Sen. Millard Tydings, who says the amount involved is $7,000.

McKeldin would not say how much he received nor would he name the donors as Tydings demanded.

Tydings, a Democrat who lost his Senate seat in 1950, pointed out that the governor has been one of the most vocal critics of members of President Truman's staff who accepted deep freezers and mink coats as presents.

2,500 Midshipmen Back In Annapolis

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)—More than 2,500 upper classmen, composing the second largest brigade of midshipmen in the history of the U. S. Naval Academy, will assemble here Friday upon their return from leave.

The old hands and the new plebes make up a brigade totaling 3,743, not far short of last year's record number of 3,815.

The regular academic year at the Academy begins on Monday.

Tight Shoes

While everybody else is feeling tenderhearted about the little children returning to school, those who look ahead are feeling panicky.

There are a million and a half more pupils this year than there were last year. It has been 12 years since the beginning of the abnormal marriage and birth rates which are a by-product of war. The World War II babies are about to swamp the school systems. This will be the peak year, but no important decline in the annual increase of enrollment is due until 1955.

If school costs had gone up as rapidly as the value of the dollar has gone down, they would be running higher than $10 billion this year; as it is, they probably will reach $6½ billion. Even so, school systems report they need at least another 50,000 teachers and more than the same number of new classrooms. There is no point of satiety in education.

While needs in many respects are more relative than absolute, it cannot be questioned that a total enrollment in schools and colleges of approximately 34,700,000 pupils is taxing educational facilities to the limit. More buildings, more teachers, more teacher training and more money could be used advantageously.

The Democratic party, recognizing this, says it would like to make the federal government responsible for part of the cost of education. The Republican party, objecting to this as one more opportunity to increase federal authority, insists education should continue to be a state and local responsibility.

Stevenson On Taft-Hartley

One of the vital things to be learned about Gov. Stevenson was his campaign position on the Taft-Hartley Act.

Would he lick the boots of the union bosses, or would he maintain his official dignity? He licked their boots.

His Detroit speech shows he intends to hold back nothing in his bid for the union bosses' support. He has started by yammering like all the rest of their trained seals for repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act. This is a remarkable antic, in view of the fact he saw no reason to repeal the law before he was nominated for the presidency.

The nomination has added Adlai a little; it does that to some men. He must have read the Taft-Hartley Act.

He must know it contains the entire Wagner Act; that this would be repealed; that Congress then would start from scratch to enact a new labor law; and that it might be a kick in the pants for union labor.

He could not help but know that the purpose of the rest of the Taft-Hartley Act is to curb the actions of union racketeers and bosses who go berserk with power.

Nor could Gov. Stevenson help but know when he talks about equal rights for all working people then takes a deep breath and recommends a closed shop, he is contradicting himself.

The Taft-Hartley Act was designed to protect American working people from heavy-handed union bosses. It was—and is—a charter of human rights for working people. It denies all would-be dictators the right to dictate to Americans who work for wages.

That is why the union bosses are frantic about it. It is a sword of Damocles hanging over their heads. If working people ever learned what this law entails them to do, they could have collective bargaining without goon squads, useless strikes, assessments to pay for their bosses' political ambitions and rackets conducted in the guise of unionism.

Men will do weird and wonderful things when the bug of presidential ambition bites them. It is a little sad to see Adlai Stevenson forsake the integrity which he talks about so much. From now on, he can only talk about it. Any presidential candidate who yammers about repealing the Taft-Hartley Act has proved his integrity is something he puts on and takes off, like his coat. Adlai Stevenson has flunked his first important test in presidential politics. He has paid a high price for the support of the union executives who held up the hoop and ordered him to jump through it to prove he was theirs—all theirs.

No one else can believe he belongs to them, now. He has heard his master's voice and obeyed.

September Change

Call it the great hush, the melancholy days, or refer to it merely as the equinox, the change which comes with September is one of the poignant realities of human experience.

Between its beginning and its end the trees and flowers will have shed their beauty. The migrant birds will have started south, and the chickadees will have started to fly in from the north.

The harvest will be over. Everything that was to have been done this year will be through, and it will be time to start what is to be done next year. Summer will be put away with the tents, tennis racquets and pleasure boats.

Summer thoughts must be put away, too. September is a serious month, a time to get down to business, along with the weather in a climate which can be counted on to do away with sunshine more than half the days until it is May again.

Foreign Policy

By JAMES MARLOW

Truman or Acheson Should Clarify Things

WASHINGTON (U)—A brief and clear statement by President Truman or Secretary of State Acheson on precisely what our foreign policy is would be helpful to everyone's understanding.

Both men have stated that policy in different ways at different times.

Yet, it has been a many-sided, developing policy. Starting with aid to Greece and Turkey, moving on to the Marshall Plan, it went into the Atlantic Pact, arms for Europe, defense of Korea, and huge rearmament.

Now that the policy has been made an issue in the presidential campaign by Gen. Eisenhower and his adviser, John Foster Dulles, it is rapidly getting fogged in semantics.

Acheson indicated at a news conference yesterday he may soon make a statement on foreign policy, although an aide said later he does not think it proper for a secretary of state to get involved in a political campaign.

In general the foreign policy can be said to be this: It's aimed at stopping Russia from going any further or gobbling up any more people. Eisenhower and Dulles, in general, agree with that.

But Eisenhower, in his speech to the American Legion Aug. 25, indicated the policy doesn't go far enough to suit him, although he himself was pretty vague on what he'd do to make it work better.

He said we should tell Russia we'll "never rest" until the people in the satellite nations are freed. Would we go to war to free them if Russia ignored us? He didn't say so. He didn't say how we could free them.

This statement caused concern in Europe and questioning here. Yet Acheson himself had said pretty much the same thing in a speech March 17, 1950, although not speaking as baldly as Eisenhower.

Among steps he said Russia could take to give the rest of the world some reason to believe there might be peace, he suggested Russia withdraw its arms and its pressures from the satellite countries, leaving them independent.

Two days after Eisenhower spoke Dulles undertook to explain what the general meant. He said Eisenhower didn't mean violent revolution in the satellite countries but peaceful revolution, using such "quiet" methods as passive resistance, non-cooperation, discontent, slowdowns, industrial sabotage.

Emergency Strikes

WASHINGTON (U)—There is a kind of American self-torture involved for a way out of national emergency strikes.

This presidential campaign isn't likely to provide a solution. Gov. Stevenson seemed to make that clear in his Laor Day speech.

He said that Taft-Hartley Act should be entirely replaced by a new labor law. He raised the question of handling national emergency strikes.

He offered several suggestions but frankly said he didn't have the answer. It's a question which makes organized labor, management and politicians unhappy. Congress has never provided the answer.

Traditionally, an employer has been free to refuse to meet the demands of a union. At the same time the union is free to strike until he does.

That freedom for both sides was recognized by Congress even in passing the Taft-Hartley Act with its many restrictions on unions and management.

When there is a threat of a strike which might hurt the national welfare, T-H provides for delaying but not, in the end, preventing it.

The government, through court injunction, can delay such a strike 80 days to give both sides that much more time to reach a settlement.

Ike's Support

WASHINGTON (U)—Daily newspaper editors are supporting Republican Dwight D. Eisenhower for the presidency by a ratio of four to one. But approximately one editor in six is supporting neither Eisenhower nor Gov. Adlai Stevenson, the Democratic nominee.

The same majority of the editors believe that General Eisenhower will win the election. An average of their predictions gives the Republican nominee a margin of 31 electoral votes—281 to 250. Two hundred and sixty-six of the 531 electoral votes are necessary for victory.

On the popular vote, editors believe the Republican plurality will be a little over 2,500,000. The average of their predictions is for a total Republican vote of 28,420,000 as against a Democratic vote of 25,420,000.

This would mean a total vote of over 54,000,000 in 1952. It would be considerably above the 48,690,000 votes cast in 1948. But it would be considerably below the 60,000,000 total vote hoped for.

These are the highlights of a poll of the 700 U.S. newspapers receiving this column. The editors of these papers were asked 15 questions on the prospects, trends and issues in the 1952 campaign.

Over 350 editors replied to the questionnaire. This 50 per cent return is considered a good result for this kind of a mail survey of opinion. Replies came from every state in the union and were well-balanced geographically. So the poll gives a good cross-section of editorial opinion two months before the election.

The replies make possible an interesting comparison of editorial opinion in six main U.S. areas: New England and the Middle Atlantic States; the South, east of the Mississippi River; the South, west of the Mississippi River; the Midwest, east of the Mississippi; the Prairie states, west of the Mississippi; and the Rocky Mountain and West Coast states.

Only in the Southeast and the Southwest does the Democratic ticket have strong editorial support. But even here only 42 per cent of the editors said they were supporting Stevenson and Sparkman.

In the Southeast, 42 per cent are supporting Eisenhower and Nixon. In the Southwest the Republican ticket has 35 per cent of the editorial support. But in this area 24 per cent of the editors say they will support neither candidate. This is also the sentiment of 16 per cent

Congress could do this: It could pass a law forbidding a strike in an industry affecting the national welfare and let it go at that.

That would penalize the union only. Deprived of its ancient right to strike it would have to continue working for an employer who, knowing his workers couldn't walk out, could take his own good time on a settlement.

This would be so obviously one-sided that, if Congress tried this remedy, organized labor could hardly sit by. In the end, and for fairness, Congress would have to pass a law penalizing an employer in such a case, too.

How? Probably by compulsory arbitration. Which means that once a union was forbidden to strike, an employer would lose his right to take his time settling with the union; the government would step in and dictate the terms of settlement which both sides would have to accept.

Bue compulsory arbitration—among labor, management and politicians—is almost in the category of a dirty word. Nobody likes to mention it.

It seems only a matter of time before Congress will have to find some final answer. So far we've been able to skid through the big strikes without national destruction.

of the editors in the Southeast and 18 per cent in the Midwest.

By contrast, the Republican ticket is supported by 73 per cent of the papers in the Midwest, 84 per cent in the Prairie states, 85 per cent in the far West and a high of 92 per cent in the Northeast.

The national totals show 68 per cent of the papers for the Republicans, 12 per cent for the Democrats, 12 per cent supporting neither and only 3 per cent not having decided as of Aug. 15 whom they will support, if anybody.

So They Say

Secrecy, even more than violence, is the hallmark of despotism. Full information goes only with democracy.—Dr. Alberto Gainza Paz, self-exiled editor of the Argentine newspaper La Prensa.

The Soviet note on Germany can be a direct, even though vague, invitation for easing the cold war and restoration of international trade.—Alf M. Landon, Republican nominee for President in 1936.

SIDE GLANCES

"Attorney General McGranery Donated This"

Stopping A Fake

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

I have always had a profound respect for the small town and country banker who serves a local American community and is rarely pressured into the uneconomic stupidities that are so characteristic of most New York bankers.

The latter live in terror of government reprisals and usually cover up, with a sanctimonious press-agented statements, their errors of commission which are a product of government pressure.

The country banker, as long as he holds the respect and confidence of his neighbors, fears nothing from Washington.

One of the most recent efforts of Mr. Truman's administration was to frighten sections of the American people into declaring themselves legal paupers and accepting government bounties because there has been a drought.

The first outstanding reporter of a drought was Joseph in the Bible; he adopted new deal procedures and Egypt went broke. A banker would understand why.

MR. T. E. WILLIAMS, of the Limestone County Bank in Athens, Alabama, is not only a country banker but he must know lots of history. He published a half-page advertisement in the Limestone Democrat telling his people to stop being scared by a drought or by the politicians. This is his advertisement:

"Mr. Farmer! 'Will it make you money to sell your cattle and hogs before they are finished under present conditions?'

"We would like for you to consider the following factors before making your decision.

1. 'It will take you 5 to 8 years to grow back into the cattle business to your present level. If you sell your cattle on the present market they will bring much less than they would have brought eight weeks ago.

"2. With the recent rains, the feed situation can be greatly improved by planting a large acreage of winter grazing crops.

"We suggest a very good winter grazing combination of oats, or oats and vetch, in all row crops for extra grazing. Clover and rye grass or small grain should be planted on prepared seed bed, except when interplanted with established sericea. Permanent pastures should commence to afford reasonable good grazing within three weeks after you get normal rainfall.

"At the present we would suggest you cut and feed green corn that will not produce at least 15 bushels per acre. If you do not want to cut this corn, we think it would pay you to buy hay or concentrate rather than sell your cattle now. If you do not have ample capital to finance purchasing feed we suggest you see us.

"We also suggest you discuss your feed problems with your county agricultural agent, soil conservation service, and the agricultural agent of this bank.

Limestone County Bank"

THAT IS telling them not to listen to adversity politics but to be Americans and to use common sense. Presidents Roosevelt and Truman used every condition of nature or political event to frighten the American people. They have called conditions 'emergencies' which were normal to any economy. They have scared the people that way. They have redistributed the wealth of the nation and made our free people increasingly dependent upon government by using wind and weather as evidences of calamity, where common sense would have served the people.

A friend of mine, driving through Virginia, writes:

"Going through Wytheville, I heard a radio broadcast that had considerable to give me pause. The speaker announced that the bankers and farmers of the county had just met and voted not . . . to ask for or accept any federal 'aid,' as it is called, in handling their drought losses. Said the radio wise man in objection, 'They ought to think it over, again. After all, Wythe County pays taxes. Here's our chance to get some of that back. Let's not be isolationists.'"

This reminds me of a neighbor who when he died left a sizeable fortune of money as well as land, timber and cattle. I used to see him working on the road in WPA days and wondered how a man of his substance, ancestry, political affiliation and standing in the community could work on the roads at 50 cents an hour. I once asked him and his reply was:

"When they're handing it out, I'm around to take it."

Apparently, he never could figure that what they were handing out, he paid. Or did he? Perhaps he had a gimmick for not paying taxes.

A Case of Melons

By TRUMAN TWILL

Everybody writes about gardening in the spring, then drops the subject. This is a change of pace—a piece about gardening in the fall.

This morning I tasted the sweetest pleasure in horticulture. I delivered a half dozen melons from the Twillery patch to an old friend whose green thumb is a possession of great and justifiable pride.

"Here," I said, casually, "These will prove to you that I can raise melons." It had been found out in advance the Green Thumb had not included melons in his gardening this year. There could be no basis of comparison, therefore.

This is what gardeners live for—to give away something they have raised in the gardens. They carry it to awkward extremes sometimes. Once a relentless gardener insisted on supplying the Twillery with egg plant, because he did not know what else to do with it. But the stuff was no more popular at our house than at his house.

But honest confession is good for the soul, as the Washington corruptionist said when he confessed to a thousandth of the loot he had pilfered. Those melons I delivered this morning were a moral fraud. I did not raise them.

All I did was to remember to buy the seeds at the seed store last May and sow them on the ground, with a light covering of dirt. From that day until today, I had nothing whatever to do with the melons. I did not even pick them; that was done by the household melon expert.

Those melons are as nearly the products of nature as anything could be. Since they grew in the place where melons grew last year, it is not even certain they came up from new seed. There might have been melons there if no seeds had been planted at all.

They were never cultivated, sprayed, or dusted. They were never fussed over. They were untouched except for the caress of the dew, the lingering kiss of the sun and the encouraging pat of raindrops on their skins. And for almost five weeks at a deeply impressionable stage in their development, they knew not the pat of raindrops, no not once.

Yet, when the end of summer comes there are quantities of melons. There are tomatoes. There are beets, carrots and beans. Until it became too ripe to be eaten with any satisfaction, there was sweet corn. There have been onions and lettuce. There may even be, a little later, some water melons.

All told, there has been, in being, or will be several hundred dollars' worth of stuff at prevailing prices. Its cost, including plowing and seeds, did not total $25. What little was done in the way of keeping down the weeds was done on a pleasure basis, as a substitute for the exercise which others obtain with golf clubs.

It would be a good idea for gardeners who get so much for so little to have their own Thanksgiving celebration each year, aside from the official Thanksgiving. It would be to celebrate the bounty of nature bestowed on those who do not deserve it—the sluggards who couldn't starve for the stuff that grows in spite of us.

Once Over

Avoiding The Questions

Maybe George Washington should have replied to "Did you or did you not chop down that cherry tree?" with a firm, "I decline to answer that question claiming the privilege of the Fifth Amendment." Possibly Nathan Hale's famous words should have been, "I regret that I have no frank statement on my life to give to my country." Perhaps Farragut should have said "Damn the torpedoes! Watch the embarrassing questions!" and Grant changed his famous utterance to, "I propose to fight it out on this line if it takes every legal device." To read the testimony before the U. S. Senate internal security committee (not the press release, but the full question-and-answer document) a guy certainly would be led to think so.

The latest testimony in radio, video and entertainment-world probe, taken together with the high indignation expressed over the evidence by the Radio Writers' Guild, is the most recent example.

The Guild denounces the Senate committee data on two of its prominent alleged Commie members as nothing more than "another attack by a self-admitted minority group." But the fact is that nothing testified to by the group is as damaging as the refusal of the involved members, one an ex-president of the Guild, to answer the simple question, "Are you now or were you ever a member of the Communist Party?"

ONE OF THE grilled radio biggies admitted turning out hundreds of scripts that are pumped into American homes, and yet actually gave the following answers to the Senators trying to get at the truth. This is from the official and complete Senate committee text:

Q—You have heard of the Communist Party, haven't you?

A—I have heard of it.
Q—Have you ever attended any of its meetings?

A—I refuse to answer that question.
Q—Were you a member of the Communist Party prior to the enactment of the Smith Act?
A—I must decline to answer.
Q—Are you now or have you ever been a member of the Communist Party?

A—I must decline to answer that question, too.

Q—How many radio programs have you written scripts for that have been sent over the length and breadth of the land?

A—I would say hundreds.
Q—What networks have you written for other than CBS?

A—ABS, NBC, Mutual in addition to CBS.
Q—Have you written any TV shows?

A—Yes.
And another big-time radio, movie and book writer replied verbatim in this manner, the record shows:

Q—Would you deny or affirm that you were among the signers of a May Day proclamation calling for support in the Communist May Day celebration?

A—I am sorry, but I claim my constitutional privilege as stated.

Q—Were you the author of a song used as a principal song at a Lenin Memorial meeting?

A—I stand on the same grounds.
Q—I put it to you as a fact and ask you to deny or affirm that in 1949 you were one of the speakers at St. Nicholas Arena in defense of Communist leaders then on trial.

A—I refuse to answer.
Q—Who was Mother Bloor?

A—I refuse to answer that question.
Q—Was there a woman by the name of Mother Bloor?

A—I refuse to answer on the grounds previously stated.

HOW FAR can a "clam-up" go? When a fellow who has worked on the Voice of America, and some of the top programs of radio refuses to tell a United States Senate Committee "Who was Mother Bloor?" or whether there was ever such a person on the ground it might incriminate and degrade him, what goes? And does the Radio Writers' Guild okay it? We dunno. We're just asking. Tens of thousands of American kids being sent to Korea, and their parents, are asking too. They get only one paramount question, "Are you ready to die for your country?" And they don't turn up with lawyers and after a huddle reply, "I don't even know if there is such a place as my country." Or "Who is this Uncle Sam of whom you speak? My lawyer says I wouldn't know."

Mr. Malik is out at U. N. and is being replaced by Mr. Zorin. . . We await an interview between the two in which Malik denies he is going and Zorin denies he is coming. Halley won another Saratoga race the other day and Shadda Haddim, who forgot a previous performance, says he wishes his recollection had been refreshed. . . Western Union rates have been increased. . . It now costs more money to send a wire, "Send me more money." . . Last week within four hours of a speech by Governor Stevenson in Madison Square Garden the place was switched over for a big-time prize fight. . . Maybe a fellow who kept shouting, "Jab him with your left; you're losing votes every minute," was a Legion member who had fallen asleep and stuck around.

Street Fair Starts Tonight

Council Approves Street Program

COLUMBIANA—Tonight will be the first night of the 66th annual Columbiana street fair and homecoming, when Main St. will be a blaze of light from the public square to Railroad St., the three long blocks closed for the three days of the annual event. The Columbiana fair, first of its kind in this part of the state, has grown in popularity through the years.

The Gooding Amusement Co. moved in from Canfield and has set up a variety of rides and other entertainment, for which it has had the concession a number of years. Chamber of Commerce exhibits in the large tent near Railroad St., at the lower end of the closed three blocks of S. Main St. are being displayed for the fourth year.

Exhibits that have been already placed in the tent are those of Keller's Hardware, Holloway and Son, C. and D. Sewing Machine Co. of North Lima, Hooper's Television Service, Battery Service Co., Crawford Equipment Co., W. B. Miller Co., Dick's Floral Shop, Columbiana Tractor Sales, Enterprise Co., Brownie Troop 3, Gay Sisters' 4-H Club, Hobby Club, F. C. Russell Co., Columbiana Farm Bureau, Sheeley Electric Co. of North Lima, Cities' Service Oil Co., Girl Scouts.

SPECIAL entertainment features of the fair tomorrow and Saturday nights will be a girls' quartet from the Lisbon American Legion Auxiliary tomorrow night, and Dave Reese and his high-batters "rube" band of Youngstown, Saturday night.

The Columbiana Garden Club, which has adopted a town beautification project for Columbiana, will have a flower show in the Methodist Church from 7 to 10 p.m. tomorrow and from 2 to 10 p.m. Saturday. Tentative plans contemplate as a beginning a patch of shrubbery around the pedestal in the middle of the public square, to include plants that will afford color most of the year.

OPENING HIS BID to crack the solid South, GOP presidential candidate Dwight D. Eisenhower (right) arrives in Atlanta to address some 30,000 persons on the "mess in Washington," which, he says, can only be cleaned up by a change in administration. Shaking hands with him is (left) Georgia's Democratic Gov. Herman Talmadge, who took occasion to praise Ike, although he has said he will support Gov. Adlai Stevenson.

The Grade School Mothers Club will have a benefit all three days of the fair, contributions to be taken to a tent near the American Laundry office on Main St.

The Columbiana Business and Professional Women's Club is co-operating with the Columbiana Public Health League in making available its mobile X-ray unit for free chest examinations from 2 to 4 and 6 to 10 p.m. tomorrow and Saturday. Club assistants will be Estella Esterly and Lulu Miller, Friday afternoon; Ruth Derringer and Kathryn Fuhrman, Friday evening; Florence Guy and Vera Frayser, Saturday afternoon, and Mary Furney and Dorothy Diamond, Saturday evening.

PERSONS willing to donate blood when the bloodmobile visits Columbiana, Wednesday, Oct. 8, may register at the civil defense booth or the American Legion Auxiliary booth.

Council accepted Tuesday evening a proposal of owners of property on Pittsburgh St. and E. Railroad St. for the seal coating of Railroad St. from the east line of the Columbiana Pump Co.'s property east to its intersection with Pittsburgh St., which will be seal coated from Quincy Ave. east to the Pennsylvania Railroad. Interested property owners are to provide the material and the street department is to do the work.

The improvement will leave a gap on each street, on Railroad St. from the Y. and S. Railroad a short distance to the east line of the Columbiana Pump Co.'s property, and on Pittsburgh St., from the Y. and S. Railroad to Quincy Ave. Treatment of the two streets in the battle with mud in previous years has left a solid foundation for the seal coat surface.

COUNCIL will advertise for bids on approximately 10,000 square yards of seal coating, including treatment of several paved streets and alleys to preserve the surface. Herber St. from N. Main to the Firestone Park entrance; Court St. from Herber St. north; the north-south alley and parking lots in the rear of the east side of S. Main St. from the first alley south of E. Park Ave. south to Pittsburgh St., and the first alley south of E. Park Ave. from S. Main St. to S. Elm St.

Council will receive at its next meeting, Tuesday evening, Sept. 16, a petition of citizens for the continuance of rent control. If no action is taken, control will automatically cease Sept. 30. Council could act at a special meeting as late as Monday, Sept. 29. No petition for de-control in opposition to the one ready to be presented has been circulated.

The Past Noble Grands' Club of Pandora Rebekah Lodge will meet at the home of Mrs. Joe Candel on Route 7, east of town, Monday evening. Members are to meet in front of the Ledger Building at 7:30 p.m.

Area Rainfall Below Normal This Summer

Rainfall in the district for June, July and August was 3.85 inches below normal, causing a severe drought during the three best growing months of the year, L. H. Copeland, district weather observer, said today.

As a result, the corn crop has been only about half a normal yield, and the potato crop is disappointing, Copeland said.

Total rainfall in August was 3.24 inches, near the average of 3.36 inches for the month, but was not sufficient to make up for the severe lack of rain in June and July.

All vegetation was retarded by the drought and farmers had difficulty with fall plowing and in preparation of a seed bed for wheat, Copeland added.

He said pasture and soil moisture was also inadequate.

August's mean temperature of 69.2 was slightly above the 60-year average of 68.9. Warmest day in August, according to Copeland's records, was Aug. 3 when the thermometer climbed to 93.

Coldest days in August were Aug. 23 and 24 when the mercury dropped to 38, only four degrees above the record low for the month of 34.

Copeland's records show seven clear days in August, 20 partly cloudy, and four cloudy days.

Boy Charged Setting Fire To 2 Children

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—An 11-year-old boy was accused today of setting two neighbor children afire in the attic of their home. Trapped and screaming, they burned to death.

The victims were Lindsey Cunningham, 8, and his sister Mary Louise, 12, Negroes.

Another sister, Esther, 11, was critically burned trying to save them. She was in San Antonio Hospital today.

A fourth member of the family, a frail, physically handicapped older sister, Ruth, 22, said she wrestled with the young assailant but he mounted a chair out of her reach and threw kerosene on the two children. Then he lit a paper torch and threw it into the attic, where the youngsters had been sorting clothing.

The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Cunningham, were away at work. Esther tossed water on the fire, police said. Ruth tried to climb to the aid of the screaming children but could not.

Mrs. Maude Wharton, a neighbor, tried to cut through ventilators in the attic with an axe when she heard the children screaming. "Save us, Maude, save us," an unidentified man grabbed the axe when she failed to cut through to the trapped pair, but he failed, too.

KILLED BY BULL

MCARTHUR, O. (AP)—A bull Wednesday gored to death Samuel Seitz, 89, on a farm near here. His skull was fractured and his chest crushed.

9 Hurt In Blast In Aircraft Plant

FT. WORTH, Tex. (AP)—At least nine persons were in hospitals today injured by an explosion that came when water was poured on a magnesium fire here.

The blast, late yesterday afternoon, ripped apart a warehouse at Bell Aircraft Plant No. 1 here. None of those injured were believed in serious condition.

A fire of undetermined origin had been blazing for 15 minutes when a volunteer fire department from the nearby Saginaw community started pouring water on the blaze, not knowing that magnesium was burning. Witnesses said this caused the blast, felt five miles away.

Ministerial Student, Wife To Be Honored At Reception

Salem friends of Jerry Lee Rice will have the opportunity to meet his attractive Arkansas bride at a reception Friday evening in the Presbyterian Church.

Mr. Rice, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rice of E. Wilson St., and Miss Myra Lee Woody, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William O. Woody of Greenwood, Ark., were married at 4:30 p.m. Sunday in the chapel of the College of the Ozarks in Clarksville, Ark. They came to Salem on their honeymoon.

The groom is a senior ministerial student at the College of the Ozarks and his bride is a registered nurse. Mr. and Mrs. Rice will make their home in an apartment near the college in Clarksville.

Rev. Coy Lee, professor of Greek at the College of the Ozarks, heard the couple pledge their vows in the double-ring ceremony.

Mr. Woody escorted his daughter to the altar, and white gladioli, greenery and ferns added beauty to the background setting.

Miss Jean McAnally, a cousin of the bride, sang "At Dawning" and "The Lord's Prayer." Organist was Miss Rosielle Green.

The gold cross on a chain of gold, a gift of the groom was the bride's only ornament. Her simply-styled gown, in ballerina length, was fashioned of white eyelet embroidered organdy over taffeta.

The bride's high circle neckline and fitted bodice added emphasis to the bouffant skirt. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held in place by a braided halo of taffeta. The white orchid she carried was cover for her white Bible.

Miss Lucille Kesner of Fort Smith, Ark., was maid of honor in a gown of pale yellow organdy over taffeta, and she carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations. Miss Sue Smith of Pine Bluffs, Ark., wore a gown of deeper yellow, and blue-tinted carnations made up her colonial bouquet.

Both attendants wore halos of braided taffeta and their gowns were patterned after the bride's. The groom's niece, seven-year-old Stevie Jo Rice of Salem, was junior bridesmaid in a full-skirted gown of light blue organdy. Yellow carnations were used in her colonial nosegay.

George Vager of Bristol, Colo., a fellow student, served Mr. Rice as best man. Three brothers of the bride, Jack, Charles and Jim Woody, and her cousin, Harold Woody, all of Greenwood, were ushers.

Mrs. Woody chose a dress of black nylon net over taffeta and black and white accessories for her daughter's wedding. Her corsage was of white carnations. Mrs. Rice wore grey lace with black accessories and a corsage of red roses.

The newlyweds greeted a large company of their friends and relatives at the reception in Hotel Ford in Clarksville. Among the guests were people from Hot Springs, Fort Smith, Little Rock, Ark., and Memphis, Tenn., and Salem.

White gladioli and a white linen cloth were used on the beautifully appointed refreshment table where the decorated four-tiered cake was served.

For their trip east the bride traveled in an aqua-colored suit with black accessories and wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet. Their address at the college will be College Station, Clarksville, Ark.

Miss Martha Yarian To Be Wed Oct. 11

Miss Martha Louise Yarian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Yarian of Columbiana has chosen Oct. 11 as the wedding date for her marriage to Samuel K. Lindner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lindner of Hamilton.

The wedding will take place at the Jerusalem Lutheran Church in Columbiana at 7:30 p. m., with the organ prelude at 7 p. m. Custom of open church will be observed.

Officiating will be Rev. Aaron Anderson, pastor of the Jerusalem Lutheran Church, and Miss Yarian's brother-in-law, Rev. Edward Yost, pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church at Falls Church, Va.

Miss Yarian, a graduate of Capital University, Columbus, taught third grade at the Washingtonville school this past year. Her fiancé, a graduate of Miami University, Oxford, served 30 months in the Air Corps and is employed in Cincinnati, where they plan to make their home.

Florence Elliott's Engagement Announced

Wednesday was the birthday of Miss Florence Elliott and also marked the date of her engagement to Charles Allen Ivan, son of Mrs. and Mrs. John Ivan of Guilford Lake. Miss Elliott received her ring for her birthday present.

Announcement of the engagement was made by her mother, Mrs. Mary Elliott of 717 S. Lundy Ave. No date has been set for the wedding. Mr. Ivan is employed at the Eljer Co.

Scout Leaders Urged To File For Training

All Salem Girl Scout leaders are reminded to register for the annual training program scheduled for two sessions in September, four in October and two in November in the Holy Trinity Lutheran Church.

There will be evening sessions to cover the same curriculum as in the afternoon, thus accommodating all wishing to attend. The classes are not limited to leaders alone but to any women interested in becoming leaders. The evening classes will convene in the Girl Scout office in the Memorial building.

Mrs. Vaughn Nichols, training chairman, said that every Leader who has not had the 16-hour basic training, is required to take this course. The leader must register for the training whether she is contacted or not.

Registration will take place at the meeting Sept. 9, starting at 1 p.m. in the church and 7 p.m. in the office. The Nov. 6 session starting at 9:30 a.m. will feature handicraft from inexpensive materials. At noon everyone will have a nosegay lunch.

The dates outlined for Holy Trinity include: Sept. 9 from 1 to 3 p.m.; Sept. 25; Oct. 2; Oct. 9; Oct. 16; Oct. 23; Nov. 6 and Nov. 13. All these sessions are from 1 to 3 p.m. Senior Girl Scout training will be given in three sessions. Troop 3 will be hostess at 7 p.m. Tuesday Sept. 16, at the Methodist Church; Troop 16 hostess at 7 p.m. Tuesday Jan. 20, at the Baptist Church and Troop 8 will be hostess at 7 p.m. April 21 at the Christian Church.

Saxon Society Members Have "Goodtime" Party

Plenty to eat was the outstanding feature of the "goodtime" party enjoyed by 250 members of Branch 18 and 19 of the Salem Saxon Society Saturday evening at the Saxon Country Club.

Dancing to records and cards also entertained. The party was planned jointly by committees from both the men's and women's lodges, with Fred Theiss Sr., as general chairman.

The two branches also will join in public suppers to start this month and continue through December. The proceeds will go for club improvements.

The women will meet Sept. 14 and the men will convene at 8 p. m. Friday in the Saxon hall.

New Officers Elected By Petiteens Club

Election of officers and welcoming of new members were highlights of Tuesday's meeting of the Petiteens Club. Judy Tame was named president; Johanna Kieffer, vice president, and Nancy Howell secretary-treasurer.

New members are Polly and Wilma Bodendorfer, Carol McQuilkin, Carol Brantigan, Barbara Young, Gloria Andrews and Mary Mercer. Sue Hill, chairman, Melissa Layton and Judy Tame will serve on the ways and means committee.

The Sept. 16 meeting will be in the home of Mary Campbell on S. Lincoln Ave.

M. & M. Club To Hold Dinner Party Sept. 16

Plans for the annual dinner party Sept. 16 were made at the meeting of the M. and M. Club members Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. John Fithian on E. Fourth St.

Prizes in the games of five hundred went to Mrs. Homer Detwiler and Mrs. Clifford Lowry. A special prize went to Mrs. Joseph Fisher. Mrs. Fithian served lunch.

Cadet Given Sendoff By Salvation Army

Miss Norma Lellie who leaves this week for the Salvation Army Officers Training College in New York City, was given a gala send-off Tuesday evening by members of the Salem Citadel of the Salvation Army.

A gift of luggage was presented to Cadet Lellie by members of the Presbyterians group of the Presbyterian Church. Miss Mary Jane Bergman, president, made the presentation.

Many other things that the cadet will need while in training were showered on her by members of the Ladies Home League of the corps.

The Salvation Army colors, red, yellow and blue, was used in the decorating theme. Games were played and refreshments were served.

Planning the going-away affair were Mrs. Donald Seiler and Mrs. Blanche McElfresh, Home League secretary. Lt. Seiler is head of the corps here.

City Hospital To Be Host To Pharmacists

Salem City Hospital will be host to members of the Akron Area Society of Hospital Pharmacists which will meet at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday Sept. 9. Jack Hovis of Salem City Hospital will assume the duties of president at this meeting.

Mrs. Jeanne Sicafoose of Adultman Hospital in Canton will report the proceedings of the Hospital Pharmacy Division of the American Pharmaceutical Association Centennial Convention in Philadelphia Aug. 17-23.

Ted Mink of Peoples Hospital, Akron, will summarize the educational program of the Institute of Hospital Pharmacy in Toronto, Canada, June 23-27.

Dr. And Mrs. Myron Riegel Honored By Eastern Stars

Dr. and Mrs. Myron A. Riegel shared the limelight at the meeting of members of the Salem Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, Tuesday evening in the Masonic Temple.

Mrs. Riegel, worthy matron of the lodge, and her husband were given a surprise party in celebration of their 22nd wedding anniversary, which fell on Sept. 2.

Red roses topped the decorated cake especially inscribed for the occasion, and the blue and red color scheme was carried out with a cloth of blue on the table and red roses between blue tapers in holders. The penny lunch was in charge of Mrs. Cecil Kerr and Mrs. Harold Bachman and their committee.

Two new members initiated received Bibles in an impressive ceremony conducted by assistant worthy patron Paul J. White. Roy Merrell is worthy patron and those desiring transportation to Friendship Night of the Anna Eckley Chapter at Negley Thursday, Sept. 11, may contact him. A bus will be secured for transportation.

A Friendship Night also was announced for the Leesville chapter Sept. 10 and members may call Mrs. Reigel, 7117, for information. Friday, Sept. 19, Salem chapter will be hostess to members of the Lisbon chapter at a Friendship Night here. In charge of the program will be Mrs. Donald Reichert and Mrs. Eugene Early, co-chairmen.

On the schedule for October will be the special affair Oct. 6 honoring past matrons and patrons. Plans also were discussed for the Grand Chapter session in Cleveland Oct. 28-30.

A district party will be held Tuesday, Oct. 23, and anyone desiring tickets may contact Mrs. Riegel.

Guest To Show Film To Salem Grangers

The Salem Grange will hold its regular meeting Friday night at the Grange hall when a guest, Fred Rufer, will show movies of his recent trip to California.

A discussion will be held on exhibits at the Columbiana County Fair next week and all grangers are requested to attend the meeting.

Burcaw Family Has Reunion; 30 Attend

Members of the Burcaw family met for their reunion Sunday at the Guilford Community clubhouse. Thirty relatives enjoyed a covered dinner at noon and ball games and visiting were the afternoon's entertainment.

Officers elected were Earl Burcaw, president; Edward Burcaw, vice president and Mrs. Glen Moffett, secretary. Relatives attended from Medina, Lisbon, Marlboro and Salem. The reunion will be held at the same place next year.

Methodists To Hold Fair At New Garden

New Garden Methodist Church on Route 9 will sponsor an old-fashioned country fair this Saturday at the church and the proceeds will go to help pay for the new pavilion recently built by the men of the church.

The pavilion will be used for many church purposes, for Boy Scouts and for community use as a picnic shelter. All the church people, the scouts and the 4-H clubs have been working for some time grading the grounds and erecting the building.

The merchants will have a display in the pavilion and a committee of women have arranged other exhibits, including Mrs. Hester Snyder (sewing); Mrs. Bob Snyder (pantry); Mrs. Bernice Sanor (candy); Effie and Gertrude Walton (food) and Elsie Gamble (baked goods).

Other entertainers are James Sharples, Wanda Marquis, a Marietta College student; Gary Blythe, the Kathy Mountz, the Gauss children, Shirley and Catherine McGee and others.

In the evening a community auction will be held with Howard Sinclair as auctioneer and Howard Baker as clerk. John Ward and Elwood Sanor are auctioneer chairmen.

In charge of parking will be Chet Conser; booths, Wilbert Amos and Jake Gerber; fruit, Katherine Guthrie; games, Rev. Oakes; refreshments, Miss Dorothy Wilson; pony rides, Carl Wickersham; miscellaneous, Wilford Gamble, high school girls and Frank and Karl Humphrey.

Alta Baker is general chairman.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Morrow of Dallas, Tex., left Thursday for home after visiting here with Mr. and Mrs. Gerald May of Franklin St. and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Morrow of Columbia St. Mrs. May entertained at dinner Wednesday noon for her uncle and his wife. Other guests were Mr. Morrow's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morrow of Salineville. The whole group were evening supper guests Wednesday in the Lloyd Morrow home. Also present were Mrs. Mario Sonagere and children of Salem.

GOP Women To Meet

A committee will meet to formulate plans for the September meeting of the Salem Republican Women's Club. Though no date has been set, a coverish supper will be held this month in the American Legion hall. A special program is planned.

6 Win Honors At Romanian Convention

Six young people of the Salem Romanian Leul Society made an enviable record Sunday at the 34th national convention of the Romanian Society of America meeting in session this week at Lorain.

The Salem sextet took first, second, third and fourth place honors in the program presented at the convention.

Richard Buta, Nick Costa and Roosevelt Copacia placed first as a singing trio, winning $50. They sang a composition written for the convention by Steve Tarzan, also of Salem.

Winning second and third place honors respectively were Leo Copacia Jr. and Miss Joann Copacia (duet), and Miss Dolores Buta. Students of Mrs. Steve Odoran, the girls were accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Odoran.

Helen Dora Copacia, playing the trumpet, and her brother, Roosevelt, on the drums, placed fourth in the contest.

Nick Budai, president of the Salem society, and John Buta were delegates to the convention.

Girl Scout Leaders Invited To Outing

Girl Scout Board members are invited to the meeting of the Girl Scout Leaders Association at 6:30 p. m. Thursday at Sevaeken Lake clubhouse.

A corn and wiener roast will be enjoyed and folk dancing will be directed by Mrs. Edwin Probert. This is the first leaders' meeting of the season and Miss Mary Catherine Donahue will preside.

County Kennel Club's Dog Show Successful

The seventh annual all-breed dog show, conducted Labor Day by the Columbiana County Kennel Club at the Alliance Elks home proved such a success that another affair will be planned for the fall of 1953. Melvin York is club president and Raymond Middleton of Alliance is treasurer.

This is the second show held in Alliance and more than $1,000 was distributed in trophies and cash awards. The proceeds will go to the cerebral palsy fund of the Elks Lodge.

Besides showing some fine dogs, the show provided good entertainment. There were no high-ranking winners among the Salem area entries.

Mrs. York presented the trophy to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth F. Nash of Joliet, Ill., owners of Duke of Hywind, a two-year-old boxer, who was judged "best of show."

Sevaeken Benefit Gives Boost To Playground

The Labor Day festival at Sevaeken Lake proved highly successful and the playground at the lake will benefit from the proceeds. Mrs. Frank Easton and her committee served the supper and the cookbook project was under the direction of Mrs. Frank Diehl.

Besides the work of the women of the auxiliary, the committee chairmen in charge of the annual event were Wilbur Sangree, Gale K. Weaver and C. Raymond Reich.

County Kennel Club's Dog Show Successful

The final dance of the season Saturday evening also was enjoyed by a large crowd.

Birthday Celebration Held For Dora Pasco, 4

Nursery rhyme characters decorated the cake served at the fourth birthday celebration Saturday afternoon for Dora Jean Pasco. The party was arranged by her mother, Mrs. Robert Pasco, in their home on S. Madison Ave.

Fifteen guests brought gifts to

Dora Jean and each in turn received a prize in the games and contests. The decorated cake was served with the refreshments. Dora Jean's birth date is Sept. 1.

Hayes Expects Good Season For Buckeyes

By FRITZ HOWELL
COLUMBUS, O. (AP) — Wayne Woodrow (Woody) Hayes was an eager optimist today as he surveyed Ohio State's prospects for the coming football campaign.

Shrugging off the loss of some 20 members of last season's squad which won four, lost three and tied two, the corpulent boss of the Bucks said:

"We'll have a good club if the attitude of the kids means anything. We're not too deep in some positions, but we could have a pretty good year."

Changes will be plentiful in procedure, deportment and personnel. On top of a T-formation offense which never quite jelled last year, Hayes has piled the split-T attack in hopes of producing more punch and power. He said he felt his boys were tired in some of the 1951 contests, so this year's training sessions will be shorter.

Two-day practices which started Wednesday will run through Sept. 12, with the players getting an unprecedented free weekend Sept. 13-14. Single sessions open Sept. 15, as Hayes starts the polishing process for the Sept. 27 opener with Indiana.

The 66 players on the Ohio roster face a rugged early-season schedule of the "make or break" variety. Indiana, under new Coach Bernie Crimmins, isn't expected to repeat its unexpected 32-10 triumph of last year, but figures to be tough. Right behind the Hoosiers come Purdue's Boilermakers, winners of their last four in 1951, and then Wisconsin, which the Bucks were lucky to tie at 6-6 a year ago.

"That's our season right there," Hayes said. "Others may be thinking about Washington State, Iowa, Northwestern, Illinois and Michigan, but I just can't make myself think beyond our first three games."

All-America back Vic Janowicz who did everything for the Bucks last season is missing this year along with a flock of highly-touted talent. Hayes has picked up only three notable newcomers who may see action.

The youngsters are Howard (Hopalong) Cassidy, All-Ohio scholastic triple-threat back from Columbus; Bud Bond, a fine kicker from Akron, and Paul Ludwig, Marion tackle. Twenty-two letter-men are among the 66 fighting for berths.

Hayes, a stern taskmaster last year, has toned down quite a bit this season and seems to be closer to his kids on and off the field. Although his offensive line is practically an all-veteran wall, Hayes faces the task of picking a defensive up-front corps, a punter, kick-off man and two new line-backers, plus settling on his offensive ball-carrying corps.

Despite all the work to be done, Hayes appeared not too perturbed and was eager to get at it. Some players will be used on both offense and defense as the platoon system goes into the discard.

Stressing that he had a talented but not-too-deep group, Hayes said:

"We're going to start slower. We had a lot of minor injuries and two serious injuries in the spring practices, and we can't afford that this fall."

Asked about a prospective starting lineup, the Buck coach grinned and answered:

"We'll know more about it Sept. 26, the day before we play Indiana. Right now every job is open for anyone to win."

Heddlestons Cop Class B Championship

Heddlestons became Class B League champions last night when they downed Joes, 14-1, in a five-inning contest at Kelley Park.

The game, the first of a scheduled four-game card, was a one-sided affair although the winning combination garnered just six hits off Joes Pitcher Ed Kupka. Kupka twirled no-hit ball for the initial three innings but he yielded eight walks, five of them in the second inning when the Pharmacy nine scored three runs.

Bill Buckman pitched three-hit ball for the winners, allowing a single to Joes leadoff man in the first inning and two other singles in the third frame. Buckman totaled nine strikeouts for the five-inning affair while walking just five batters.

Joes collected their lone run in the first frame to take the lead when a single and three walks forced the runner home. However, Heddlestons came back with three runs in the second and never gave up the lead the remainder of the contest. The winners rapped out four hits in the third inning, including Jack DeWan's triple, the only extra base blow of the game, and got three walks and an error to score six runs to take a 9-1 lead and then topped the evening off with five more tallies in the fifth frame on two hits and five walks.

It took the title winners just four games to win the championship, as they knocked off the Lions in two straight tilts and then downed Joes in two games. The team ended in third place during the regular season, add six points.

New York, Tribe Taste Defeat

8 Games Separate Dodgers, Giants

By RALPH RODEN
AP Sports Writer

There's a growing fear in the hearts of Cleveland's baseball fans today that history is about to repeat.

Last year Cleveland won 17 games and lost only five to Detroit's fifth-place Tigers—but three of those defeats came late in September and knocked the Indians out of pennant contention.

The Tigers are worse off this year. They appear a cinch to finish last for the first time in their American League history but when the Indians furnish the opposition the Tigers act ferocious.

Cleveland started off by winning its first four meetings from the Tigers but since then they have managed to take only five out of 11 from Fred Hutchinson's charges.

They bit the dust again last night, 11-8, blowing a chance to cut the New York Yankees' 3 1/2-game lead. The Yanks were stymied, 3-0, behind the one-hit pitching of Philadelphia's Harry Byrd.

In other games, Washington smeared the reeling Boston Red Sox, 9-2, and Chicago edged St. Louis, 1-0.

Brooklyn kept its cozy eight-game National League edge over the New York Giants, nipping Boston, 6-5, while New York nosed out Philadelphia, 4-3, in 10 innings. St. Louis brushed by Chicago, 6-1, and Cincinnati downed Pittsburgh, 1-0, in remaining games.

Don Kolloway, 34-year-old utility infielder, ruined the Indians last night. Kolloway whacked a pinch-hit grand-slam home run off Lou Brissie in the sixth inning to wipe out an 8-6 Cleveland lead.

Byrd walked two and fanned four in hanging up his 14th victory for the A's. Irv Noren spoiled his no-hit bid with a bloop double in the second inning.

The Senators shoved six runs across the plate in the second inning and beat Dizzy Trout and the Red Sox with ease.

Lefty Dick Littlefield held Chicago to two hits but one of them was Sam Mele's 13th homer in the seventh inning and it cost him the game.

The Dodgers overcame a 5-0 deficit in beating the Braves for the 14th time without a loss. The Brooks tied the score with five runs in a fourth-inning rally and won out in the eighth when Duke Snider squeezed Jackie Robinson home.

Bobby Thomson of the Giants tripled home pinch-runner Dusty Rhodes from first base in the 10th to beat the Phils.

Veteran Ken Raffensberger recorded his sixth shutout, high for the majors, in out-pitching Pittsburgh's young Ron Necciai.

Chicago tagged Gerry Staley for 12 hits but the Cardinal right-hander coasted to his 16th victory as the Cards supplied him with a 6-1 bulge in two innings.

Turner, Dykes Mix Friday Night

NEW YORK (AP)—Gil Turner is going to fight his own way Friday night against power-punching Bobby Dykes in Madison Square Garden.

That means the perpetual motion fighting machine from Philadelphia is going to throw punches from the opening bell and keep tossing leather as long as he can stand.

It also means the 21-year old Negro is going to be wide open for one of the fastest and hardest hitters in the welterweight division.

The bookmakers believe the once-beaten Philadelphia can win if he follows through on his plan. They've made him a 9 to 5 favorite to whip the stringbean six-footer from Texas on the theory that if he keeps driving in, long-armed Bobby won't have the necessary fighting room to unlimber his big guns.

Bobby Thomson of the Giants tripled home pinch-runner Dusty Rhodes from first base in the 10th to beat the Phils.

Durocher Signs For '53 Season

Proclaims New York Will Beat Dodgers

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK (AP)—Leo Durocher bravely proclaims in public that his New York Giants can overhaul the runaway Brooklyn Dodgers.

Privately, however, the dapper little manager, who yesterday signed to lead the Giants again in 1953, is looking forward to next year.

"We haven't given up by a long shot," he insists, "not until they can show me in black and white that we're mathematically eliminated."

Leo, however, knows that only a miracle, even bigger than the one that brought the National League flag to the Giants last year, is needed. And he is not counting on it. He knows his team, handicapped by injuries to Monte Irvin and Sal Maglie and the loss of Willie Mays to the service, is not good enough to pull off another miracle. So he is resigned to "wait until next year."

"Things should be a lot different—and better—next year," he says. "First of all, the big guy (Irvin) will be sound again. And there isn't a better clutch hitter in baseball than Monte."

"Also we're bringing up a couple of good-looking youngsters who may help us. They tell me we've got a kid shortstop in Minneapolis who can't miss. All who have seen him tab him as a future great. His name is Daryl Spencer. He is a big boy, 6-2, 180 pounds and a long ball hitter. He's hit 25 home runs, 19 of them after July 4."

"Another who our scouts think of highly is Bill Taylor, an outfielder. He is in the Army now but is expected to be discharged next Feb. 28. We purchased him from Oakland a couple of years ago and he can really belt that ball. He is only 22."

In answer to a question, Durocher said he is ready to trade any player on the club "if we can make a deal to help us."

The bookmakers believe the once-beaten Philadelphia can win if he follows through on his plan. They've made him a 9 to 5 favorite to whip the stringbean six-footer from Texas on the theory that if he keeps driving in, long-armed Bobby won't have the necessary fighting room to unlimber his big guns.

Columbia County Loop Holds Annual Banquet

Nearly 75 Columbia County League baseball players, managers, and officers of the league attended their annual banquet at the Christian Church last night.

President Tom Cartwright of East Liverpool opened the program with the introduction of Russ Biggens of East Palestine, secretary-treasurer of the loop, who acted as toastmaster.

Biggens called on the managers of the league's seven teams and also introduced vice-president Stu Curtiss of East Liverpool who also has charge of publicity for the league. Other guests also spoke following a turkey dinner.

Campanella Having Trouble Winning Berth With Browns

HIRAM, O. (AP)—Joe Campanella, Tulane, "has been more serious than Joe and rates an edge offensively," Brown said.

The league schedule opens for the Browns Sept. 28 against the champion Los Angeles Rams. The Browns have asked waivers on Bob Oristaglio, an end who came to them last season when the Baltimore club disbanded.

And now he has just two more exhibitions to show how good he is as a pro.

"If we had to make a decision today it probably would be in favor of Jerry Helluin," said Coach Paul Brown.

Helluin, a 290-pound rookie from

Pitching: Harry Byrd, Athletics —Pitched a 3-0, one-hit victory over the New York Yankees for his 14th triumph of the season.

Batting: Don Kolloway, Tigers —Belted a grand slam, pinch-hit home run in sixth inning to lead Detroit to an 11-8 triumph over Cleveland.

Garcia Pitches Today After Tribe's 11-8 Loss

Indians Lose In 6th Inning

Kolloway's Homer Is Winning Blow

CLEVELAND (P)—Mike Garcia, shooting for his 18th victory against nine defeats, tries today to get the pennant-hopeful Cleveland Indians an even break in their series with the last-place Detroit Tigers. The Bengals spoiled the opener of a 20-game home stand Wednesday night by homering the Indians to an 11-8 defeat and costing them a precious opportunity to gain ground on the New York Yankees who lost in Philadelphia but retained their 3½ game hold on first place.

Bill Wight, who has a 6-9 record, will make his first start of the season against the Tribe today. Bob Feller was charged with the first five Tiger runs but left the game before the Indians came up with an eight-run fifth inning to take a short-lived lead. Thus he avoided his 14th defeat against nine victories.

The loss was charged to Bob Chakales who loaded the bases in the sixth on a single and two walks. Lou Brissie then relieved Chakales and served a home run pitch to pinch hitter Don Kolloway. That four-run blow put the Tigers ahead 10-8.

Walt Dropo pounded a homer in the fifth with two on off Mickey Harris. Two of the runs were charged to Feller but were unearned because first baseman Luke Easter dropped the ball in what should have been completion of an inning-ending double play.

Dropo hit another round tripper with none on in the ninth off Early Wynn, and Jim Delsing got a homer off Feller in the fourth with none aboard.

In the eight-run Tribal uprising that routed Newhouse, Larry Doby smacked a three-run homer, his 29th of the season, and Jim Hegan larrupped a three-run homer off Dave Madison who replaced Hal. A double by Bob Avila drove in the first run of the rally, and a single by Dale Mitchell plated the final one.

Del Flanagan Wins Decision Over De Fazio

CLEVELAND (P)—Johnny (Red) De Fazio furnished the momentum to keep the fight going, but Del Flanagan won the decision Wednesday night after 10 rounds.

De Fazio, 151 pounds and from Bayonne, N. J., carried the fight to his lighter opponent steadily until the seventh round. Although he frequently landed a good left to Flanagan's body, the St. Paul puncher outboxed him handily.

There were no knockdowns and the decision was unanimous.

Only 1,034 turned out for the contest, the smallest crowd ever attending a show promoted by Cleveland's Larry Atkins. The bouts were televised nationally but blacked out locally.

Southwest Talks Football Of Six Teams

DALLAS (P)—The uncertainties of Southwest Conference football is aptly illustrated by the fact that almost everybody has picked Texas Christian to win the title but all are talking about Texas and Southern Methodist.

Baylor, which suffered what could appear to be back-breaking losses, also is a hot topic. Rice and Arkansas have plenty of followers. In other words, you can get six championship choices by talking to six different fans or coaches.

Only Texas A&M isn't given a look-in. But the way things usually go in this conference of upsets and grudge games, the Aggies have a good chance to win the title, even though last year's team was virtually wiped out by graduation.

Only once in the past 10 years has the favorite come through.

That was in 1950 when Texas was the general choice and won. Coach Blair Cherry quit after Texas took the title. He must have figured a good thing like that just couldn't possibly last.

The conference schools all started haining this week. Not much optimism came from any of the camps except Southern Methodist.

"We are going to have a good team," said Coach Rusty Russell. It was precedent-shattering for the usually doleful mentor of the Methodists. The fact that he couldn't find a tackle anywhere last year but has them running out of his ears this season—seven let-terms, to be exact—prompted the quote. SMU also has plenty of veterans back from last season's team that beat Notre Dame, slaughtered Arkansas and didn't do much else except play everybody a tight game.

Bob Jones won the U. S. Amateur golf title five times and once was runner-up.

Tom Harmon, former Michigan All-American will do the radio and television announcing of Detroit Lion football games this fall.

Roving Reports By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Kindergarten is what makes or breaks a man.

Millions of future little American husbands, trudging to school for the first time, will learn that this month.

A kindergarten is a "garden of children." But it is also a wilderness where small two-legged bits of protoplasm—part elf, part demon, part angel—speed up their sad and wonderful transformation into human beings.

It separates the boys from the girls and sets them forever upon their separate paths. There a young fellow will meet and have to try to cope with all the adventures he will encounter in later life—love and loss, victory and disaster, achievement and failure, pride and fall, and golden friendship, ever betrayed, ever rekindled.

That these adventures are small-scale makes them no less affecting to the half-pint denizens of this classroom. A mouse gets as much fun from a piece of cheese as an elephant does from a ton of hay, and a headache hurts him as much.

So it is with children. The kindergarten which seems to envious grownups a lost Eden is to the small fry a kind of battlefield. The wounds they receive there are immortal: First scars are longest remembered.

Looking back on my own kindergarten days, however, I find that is the only period of my life I would truly wish to relive. This is not because it was an altogether happy time, for it was not that. I don't recall weathering any despair deeper than I knew at one time or another in kindergarten. Nor reaching any higher peaks of joy.

The fine thing then was that any emotion I went through had a poignancy never attained later. I savored even my moods of despondency almost as much as my rainbow pleasures. A child enjoys his self-pity because he feels nobody in his history of the world has been so put upon. When he grows older he knows this isn't so and that robs him of most of the fun of feeling sorry for himself.

"In college a fellow picks up a lot of detailed knowledge but it is in kindergarten that he learns the basic principles that will guide him through life. Here are a few I learned the hard way:

1. If you don't like to doff your cap to older people to be polite, don't wear a cap.
2. Never hit a person of the opposite sex when she's down, even if she is bigger than you—and particularly when somebody is looking.
3. Don't lend your last marble, because if you do you won't have anything left to play the game yourself.
4. Never tell all you know. (I made the mistake of confiding to a pal I had a crush on a little girl in kindergarten—a talented creature, she could toe-dance at five. The next day even the big bullies in the second grade were teasing me about it, and I had to call off the whole affair.)
5. Don't brag about your galloping.

In our kindergarten galloping was a high art, and I was the best. (I still think so!) One day while we were wheeling around the room . . . gallop . . . gallop . . . gallop . . . I called over to the teacher, who was pounding the piano. "Look at me, Mrs. Steele. Look at me now!"

Just then my flying foot hooked the big flat hoof of a red-haired little filly ahead of me, and down she went on her fat little face—and up again she came in tears, with both fists swinging. I don't recall ever galloping in public since.

Yes, a wise man can learn most of what he needs to know about life in kindergarten.

Paul Revere was the first president of the Boston Board of Health.

Father Loses Fight Over Custody Of Girl

A Wellsville father failed to win custody of his 13-year-old daughter Wednesday when Judge Joel H. Sharp in Common Pleas Court at Lisbon ruled against his writ of habeas corpus, allowing the girl's aunt to keep her.

Guy M. Handley, a railroad worker, was denied the custody of his daughter, Susan Carol Handley, in favor of her aunt, Mrs. Mary Graham of Wellsville, who had been keeping her since the death of the girl's mother in 1942. Mr. Handley remarried in 1949.

The incident ended on a happy note, however, when, following the decision, the girl embraced her father.

Applesauce Bran Muffins Are a Favorite

Bring your favorite bran muffins to the table in a new dress—as applesauce bran muffins. They are moist with the applesauce, spicy in flavor, and tender of crust. Make a double batch—first half for lunch or dinner, second half for tomorrow's breakfast.

APPLESAUCE BRAN MUFFINS

1/4 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon cloves
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
3 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons sugar
1 cup whole bran
1 egg, beaten
One-third cup milk
Two-thirds cup thick applesauce
1/4 cup melted fat

Sift together flour, spices, baking powder, salt and sugar. Mix in whole bran. Combine egg, milk, applesauce, and fat.
Add to dry ingredients all at once, stirring only enough to moisten. Fill greased 3 by 1 1/2-inch muffin pans two-thirds full. Bake in hot oven (400 F.) about 20 minutes. Yields 12 medium-size muffins.

CORAL SAUCE

1 cup mayonnaise or mayonnaise-type salad dressing
One-third cup chili sauce
2 tablespoons vinegar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon sugar
Freshly-ground pepper (to taste)
1/4 teaspoon onion salt
Stir all ingredients together and serve with chilled boiled shrimps on salad greens. Makes about 1 1/2 cups sauce.

CHILLED BEET SOUP

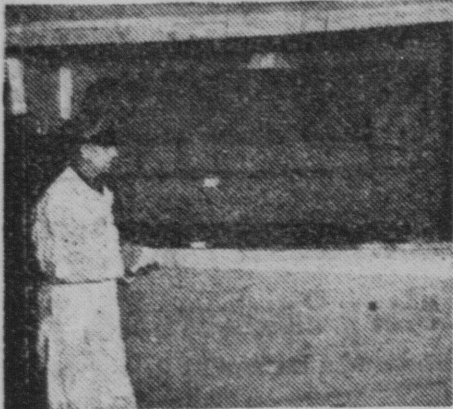

1 31-ounce jar borscht (beet soup)
2 bay leaves
1 teaspoon finely grated onion (juice and pulp)
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce overnight. Remove bay leaves and and Worcestershire sauce; chill overnight. Remove bay leaves and serve cold. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

CHIVES: VARIED USES

If you have chives growing in your backyard you can use them in many dishes during the summer. They're delicious added to creamed cottage cheese, scrambled eggs, or to buttered noodles or elbow macaroni. Try sprinkling them on sliced tomatoes that have been marinated in French dressing; add them, also, to a tossed green salad.

If you want to hard-cook egg yolks without whites, drop the yolks into water that is simmering and cook ten to twelve minutes—just until the yolks are firm.

IF BOOKS MILDEW...

If books mildew during the summer, spread the pages of the books out fanwise to air them. If the books are quite damp, sprinkle cornstarch between the leaves to take up the moisture. Leave starch on them for several hours, then brush off.

TEST FOR CAKE

Test a cake for doneness by touching the top center of the cake lightly with your finger. If the surface springs back, the cake is done. If the impression of your finger remains, the cake is not done.

BARBECUE SAUCE: VERSATILE

Leftover barbecue sauce may be used as a filling for an omelet, but go slow in adding it since it will probably be much spicier than the regular tomato sauce usually called for. One to two tablespoons will be plenty for a two-egg omelet.

Ice Cream Dessert Suggestion

Ever think of serving rich ice cream drinks for Sunday dessert for a change? Try it once. It's good fun. This Peppermint Stick Milk Shake recipe comes from Mary Wilson's "Desserts America Loves" just published in Peoria, Illinois. It's a book to delight all dessert fans.

Peppermint Stick Milk Shake

1/4 pound peppermint stick candy
1 cup milk
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 pint cold milk
1/2 pint vanilla ice cream
1 ounce semisweet chocolate, shaved

Crush the peppermint candy to fine shreds. Shake candy, 1 cup of milk, and salt together in a beverage shaker. Cover, place in refrigerator and let stand for 30 minutes (until candy is dissolved).

Remove from refrigerator. Add the ice cream and the remainder of the milk and shake well. Pour into tall tumblers. Sprinkle shaved pieces of chocolate over contents of each tumbler. Serve at once. Yield: six servings.

Fresh peaches make wonderful eating. "Desserts America Loves" has this to say on that tender subject:

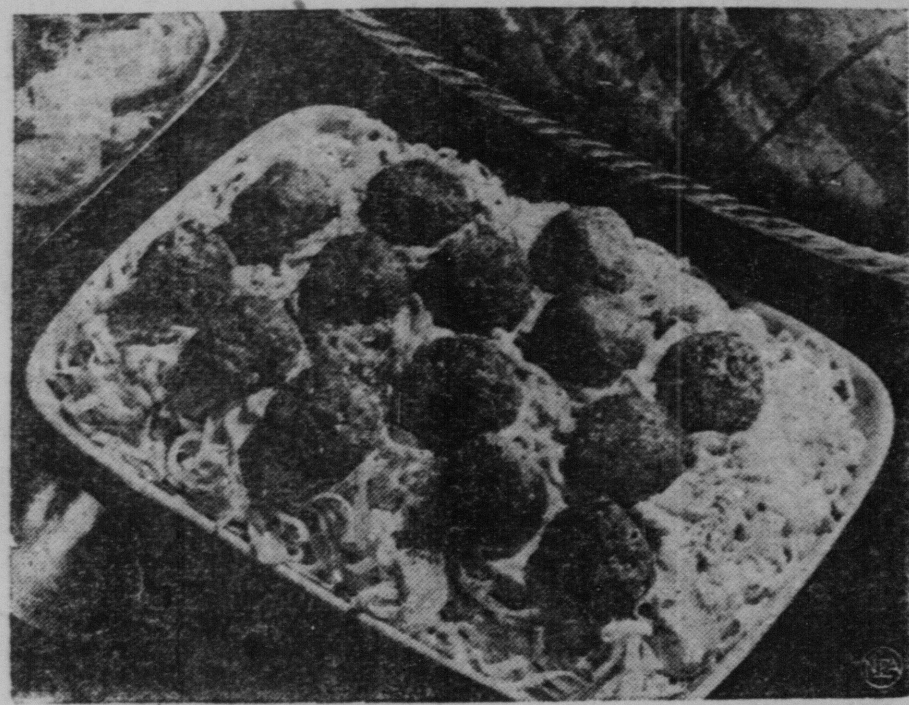

Fresh Peach Mousse

1 cup fresh peaches, finely chopped

1/4 cup sugar
1 cup whipped cream
2 egg whites, beaten
2 tablespoons sugar
Few grains salt

Mix the peaches and sugar together. Fold quickly into whipped cream before the peaches discolor.

Meat Ball Special

These Hungarian meat balls are outstanding. The meat mixture is a combination of ground pork and veal with a hint of grated lemon rind and nutmeg held together with rolled oats. In traditional Hungarian fashion, the meat balls are browned slowly and simmered gently in a rich sour cream sauce.

If chilled in the refrigerator for a while before handling, the meat mixture is easier to form into small meat balls. Much of the preparation can be done ahead of

Add the 2 tablespoons sugar and the salt to beaten egg whites, and beat until it forms soft peaks.

Fold egg white mixture into whipped cream mixture. Pour at once into chilled refrigerator freezing tray or molds, and freeze until firm. Yield: six to eight servings.

time, up to the point where the balls are cooked in sour cream. This final cooking should be done just before dinnertime to prevent any chance of curdling.

Hungarian Meat Balls

Meat Balls:

3/4 pound ground veal
1/4 pound ground lean pork
1/2 cup rolled oats (quick or old-fashioned, uncooked)

1 egg
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg.

Sauce:

1 cup sour cream
Combine all ingredients for the meat balls. Shape the mixture into small balls and brown in hot fat in a frying pan. When well browned, add sour cream; cover and simmer 20 minutes. Serve over noodles. Sprinkle with a dash of paprika. Makes six servings.

Deep Dish Cherry Pudding

Fruit Base:

1 tablespoon cornstarch
1/2 cup sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 pint red pitted cherries (No. 2 can)

To make fruit base, combine cornstarch, sugar and salt. Drain juice from cherries and add to dry ingredients. Stir well; cook over medium heat until sauce is thickened and clear; stir frequently. Add cherries and pour into 2-quart casserole.

Batter:

1/4 cup shortening
1/2 cup sugar
1 egg, beaten
1/2 cup milk
1/2 teaspoon mace
1 cup pancake ready-mix

To make batter, cream shortening; add sugar and egg; combine well. Stir milk and mace into mixture. Add pancake ready-mix. Stir only enough to combine ingredients. Drop by tablespoons over hot cherries; then spread batter to distribute evenly over surface.

Bake in hot oven (400 degrees F.) 30 to 35 minutes, or until surface is firm. Serve warm. Serves six.

SOUR CHERRY PRESERVES

4 cups pitted sour red cherries (tightly packed)
3 cups sugar

In a 4-quart saucepan boil cherries in their own juice until they are tender—about 10 minutes. Stir in the sugar and boil 5 minutes. Cover and let stand 2 minutes. Stir and pour into hot sterilized jars; seal. Makes 3 to 4 cups.

PICNIC SANDWICHES

Picnic sandwiches: chop four hard-cooked eggs fine and mix them with a small can of deviled ham. Moisten this filling with mayonnaise and season with prepared mustard, chili sauce, Worcestershire sauce and finely-grated onion.

Answer To Lumps In White Sauce

You should never, never have lumps in your white sauce, according to Miss Inga Nielsen of Jamaica, Long Island.

I'll share with you her recent letter on the subject. Here it is as I received it, referring to a recent article of mine called "White Sauce Is a Blessing If You Keep It Lump Free":

"My blood pressure rose several points as that headline jumped out at me. Take no offense, as similar headings and articles have done this to me in the past. I have just been too lazy to take pen in hand, but now you are going to be the victim of my blast."

"I simply cannot understand why one of you food experts does not have a mother who gave you the 'facts of life' about white sauce. My mother did—and here is the simple truth: WARM YOUR LIQUIDS FIRST—no matter what liquid is used!"

"Let us take the simple, thin, consistency white sauce:

"1—Place within reach near the stove one measuring cup of milk, one tablespoon of butter, and one tablespoon of flour.

"2—Pour milk into small saucepan—and leave that measuring cup right where it is, you are going to need it. Warm milk over low heat—warm is the word—not ever bring boiling.

"3—Pour warm milk back into measuring cup.

"4—Place one tablespoon butter in saucepan which is still warm and put back over heat until melted. Remove from heat and add one tablespoon flour and stir to paste. Add the warm milk a little at a time, stirring it smooth after each addition.

"5—Place back on medium heat and stir until it comes to a boil. You just can't induce a single lump to appear.

"Won't you start a crusade to eliminate the word 'lump' from all and sundry white sauce recipes? It has become such a 'red-light' danger signal to young brides that they never even try to make it."

It's Apple-Picking Time In Salem

Tree-ripened orchard-fresh Ohio apples taste better, so buy Ohio apples for best results. They are good eating and good for you—so eat them daily for good health.

That old saying "An apple a day keeps the doctor away" is not a joke, but good sense. They are nature's health food. Among their health values are:

Contain vitamins A, B, C and G (or B2), all needed for good health. An apple cleanses teeth and massages gums. They contain plenty of essential body minerals such as iron and calcium in addition to several others.

Apples also contain alkaline materials needed to aid digestion. The sugar content is about 12 1/2 per cent to 80 percent water. Sugar is an energy food. This is why doctors, dentists, laymen, and cook-in-chief say, "they are good for you."

Food needs two requirements. It must be "good to eat" and "good for you." Children like apples because they are "good to eat." They also satisfy their craving for food—can be eaten between meals with both enjoyment and benefit to health. (Not so is candy and a lot of other things we let our children eat so freely.)

Apples are "good for you" because they have "everything" it takes to make an ideal fruit food. Each variety of apple matures and reaches its highest quality at or about a definite time or season.

So use the right apple at the right time. Apples should be kept in the ice-box, refrigerator or other cool moist place all the time.

Always remember "to keep 'em crisp, keep 'em cold" and buy Ohio apples because they taste better. Orchardists are picking Wealthy and Ohio Non-Pariel now. Both are good for eating, baking, puddings, pies, salads and sauce. Use them now. Can some applesauce.

Equally good for all around use are Cortland and McIntosh which will be ready to pick before long.

"Everyone Can Cook" Recipes

We had a wonderful visit to Minneapolis, Minn. They eat well there and are warmly hospitable. Now, to our delight, comes a collection of Minneapolis recipes called "Everyone Can Cook." You'll like it, too.

It's one of those private collections for a good cause, gathered together by Luella R. Maslon, of the Mount Sinai Hospital Women's Auxiliary, and her committee. Proceeds help maintain that new non-sectarian hospital.

Simple solutions to elegant eating are packed between the book's covers. Take a look, then believe that title "Everyone Can Cook."

Breast of Chicken with Cashew Nuts

8 chicken breasts
1 cup cashew nuts
4 tablespoons butter
Salt
Pepper

Shortening
1 cup cream
1 tablespoon brandy or brandy flavoring

Divide each breast in half and flatten slightly. Season well with salt and pepper. Pulverize cashew nuts with rolling pin and make a paste of nuts and butter. Coat the outside of each breast.

Heat shortening in frying pan and brown cashew side of chicken quickly. Turn chicken, cover, and simmer slowly about 45 minutes until tender. Add cream and brandy, or brandy flavoring. Cook until thickened.

Different Mashed Potatoes

Boil potatoes and onions together. Mash. Add eggs in place of milk while beating, and season with salt and pepper. These can be placed in casserole, and put under the broiler for a few minutes, to make a brown crust.

Peas and Sour Cream

3 pounds fresh peas (frozen peas can be used)
1 tablespoon melted butter
1 cup sour cream
Chopped mint or chives

Cook peas, drain and put in saucepan with butter. Shake over flame until peas are coated with butter. Add sour cream and fold in quickly until well distributed. The peas should be hot, and the cream cold. Sprinkle with mint or chives and serve immediately.

HELPFUL KITCHEN HINT

If peanut butter and salad dressing are used regularly they may be stored on a cupboard shelf. But if you are keeping an opened jar any length of time store it in the refrigerator to prevent rancidity.

Sandwich "Stuffings"

There's nothing wrong with baked ham and sliced cheese or shrimp salad for sandwich fillings, but sometimes try different combinations. Here are two new sandwich fillings—Ham Waldorf and Cream Cheese Surprise. Sandwich meals are a boon in hot weather; serve the sandwiches with salads, milk drinks, fruit desserts and you'll have plenty of good taste and nutrition.

HAM WALDORF

1 cup coarsely ground cooked ham
½ cup diced celery,
½ cup diced apple
¼ cup chopped peanuts
3 tablespoons mayonnaise-type salad dressing
Mix well the ham, celery, apple, peanuts and salad dressing just before making sandwiches. Makes enough filling for 4 hearty sandwiches.

CREAM CHEESE SURPRISE

2 3-ounce packages cream cheese
6 strips bacon (cooked until crisp and drained and crumbled)
½ cup sliced pimiento-stuffed olives
Softened cheese by allowing to stand at room temperature; mix well with bacon and olives. Makes enough filling for 4 to 6 sandwiches.

Raisins are such a good source of the food mineral, iron, that they should be served often in family meals. Put raisins in puddings, muffins, cake, cookies, salads and sandwiches.

Here's Answer To "What To Eat"

Calves liver with herbs, cooked according to an old provincial French recipe but in a modern pressure cooker, is a quick answer to "What to eat tonight."

Calves Liver with Herbs Presto

4 T flour
2 t salt
¼ t pepper
2 pounds liver sliced ¼-inch thick
3 T fat
½ cup water with 1 teaspoon lemon juice
1 t chopped parsley
1 t tarragon
1 t chopped chives
1 t lemon juice

Dredge liver in combined flour, salt and pepper. Heat cooker and fat and brown liver on both sides. Add water. Place cover on cooker. Allow steam to flow from vent pipe and cook 5 minutes with stem at COOK position. Cool cooker at once.

Place liver on platter and keep hot. Add remaining ingredients to liquid left in cooker. Boil a few minutes to condense. Pour over liver and serve.

Honeycomb tripe is far more delicate than most Americans realize. Here's a European method.

Honeycomb Tripe

2 pounds tripe, cut in 3 x ½-inch squares
2 t salt
¼ t pepper
1 clove garlic, diced
1 cup water in cooker
½ cup celery, diced
1 T cornstarch
1 t Worcestershire sauce
½ t prepared mustard
Wash tripe thoroughly in warm water and soak in cold water. Cut in 3 x ½-inch pieces. Place on rack with water in cooker. Add salt, pepper, garlic, onion and celery.

Place cover on cooker. Allow steam to flow from vent pipe to release all air from cooker. Place indicator weight on vent pipe and cook for 25 minutes with stem at COOK position. Let stem return to DOWN position.

Remove tripe and rack. Thicken liquid with paste made of cornstarch and water. Add Worcestershire sauce and mustard. Pour over tripe.

Versatile Lime Freeze Is Ideal Treat

Summer food that looks cool is especially appealing when the thermometer soars. Everything about this lime freeze, served alone as a frozen dessert or piled into the heart of an iced melon, adds the right touch in sweltering weather. Topped with mint sprigs here, it's a star of hot weather dining.

LIME FREEZE

1 tablespoon (1 envelope) plain unflavored gelatin
1½ cups cold water
¾ cup boiling water
1 cup sugar
½ cup lime juice
6 to 8 drops green vegetable coloring
One third cup water

1 tablespoon lemon juice
One third cup nonfat dry milk
Set refrigerator control at coldest point. Soften gelatin in ½ cup cold water, 5 minutes. Add softened gelatin and sugar to boiling water and stir until thoroughly dissolved.
Add remaining 1 cup cold water, lime juice and green coloring. Pour into refrigerator tray. Freeze until ice crystals begin to form to a depth of ¼ inch on bottom sides of tray.

Pour one-third cup water and lemon juice into a deep 1-quart bowl. Sprinkle nonfat dry milk over water and beat with rotary beater or electric mixer until stiff, about 8 to 10 minutes. Scrape partially frozen mixture into a chilled bowl beat quickly with rotary beater or electric mixer until the consistency resembles strained applesauce.

Fold whipped nonfat milk mixture into beaten lime mixture; pour into two refrigerator trays and return to freezing compartment; freeze about 2 hours or until completely frozen.

LUNCHEON MAIN COURSE

What to serve for a bridge-luncheon? For the main course bake some tart shells and fill them with creamed shrimp and mushrooms. Accompany the tarts with hot rolls and a tossed green salad. Choose a refreshing fruit dessert such as pineapple sherbet and pass a plate of crisp vanilla wafers with it.

Ribbon Cake Excellent Dessert Or Snack

A hot-weather treat for lazy-day cooks is this downy, quick-as-a-wink cake. A perfect pick-me-up

Look For Orange Juice Desserts

With so much frozen orange juice available at moderate prices, it's time to look for dessert recipes using orange juice.

Julia Stevens, of the Minute Maid test kitchens, sent us a hand-some orange cake the other night. The boys of the family gobbled it up—so did the rest of us. We think your family will be equally enthusiastic.

Here is Miss Stevens' exclusive recipe:

Frozen Orange Juice Cake

2 1/4 cups sifted self-rising cake flour

1 1/2 cups granulated sugar

1/2 teaspoon baking soda

1/2 cup softened shortening

1 cup orange juice

2 eggs, unbeaten

1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract

Heat oven to 350 degrees F.

(moderate). Line two 9-inch layer pans with waxed paper. Sift dry ingredients together into large bowl; add 3/4 cup orange juice.

Blend to dampen and beat for 2 minutes. Add unbeaten eggs, the remaining orange juice and vanilla extract; beat for 1 minute. Pour batter into lined pans and bake for 25 to 30 minutes, or until done.

Frozen Orange Juice Icing

One-third cup butter

Dash of salt

3/4 teaspoon grated lemon rind

4 cups confectioners' sugar

1/4 teaspoon lemon juice

One-third to 1/2 cup orange juice

Cream butter, blend in salt and lemon rind. Add some sugar, blending in well. Add lemon juice. Add remaining sugar and the orange juice alternately, beating well after each addition.

Use the amount of orange juice necessary for consistency of frosting desired. Beat frosting until smooth. Fill and frosts two nine-inch layers.

for jaded summer appetites, especially when served with a frosty beverage. It's ideal as an afternoon snack or as dessert for light summer meals.

BLUEBERRY RIBBON CAKE

1 pkg. instant white cake mix

1/2 cup milk and two-thirds cup milk

1 cup blueberry jam

1 cup heavy cream, whipped and sweetened

Turn cake mix into bowl. Add 1/2 cup milk. Blend, then beat 2 minutes. Add two-thirds cup milk.

Blend, then beat 1 minute longer. (Beat cake vigorously by hand or at a medium speed of electric mixer.)

Pour batter into two round 8-inch layer pans, which have been lined on bottoms with paper. Bake in moderate oven (375 F.) 20 minutes or until done. Cool.

Split each layer, making four layers. Spread first layer with half of the jam, top with second layer and spread with half of the whipped cream. Repeat, using remaining jam and cream. Serve at once.

Health To You

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.
Parrot Fever Virus Can Spread To Humans

Mrs. G. G. B. asks whether there is such a thing as parakeet fever. She says she has heard that if one handles a parakeet too much, one will get this fever.

The condition about which Mrs. B. inquires is usually known as psittacosis, or parrot fever. It is a disease caused by a virus, (which is a small living thing too small to see under the microscope) and can be caught only from certain kinds of birds.

In other words, a person will not catch the disease from handling a healthy parakeet, but only from one which is infected.

This disease involves birds such as parrots primarily, but it can be spread to human beings. When human beings become infected, the symptoms usually consist of a high fever and changes in the lungs similar to those of pneumonia.

In 1932, 76 cases of psittacosis were reported in the United States and seven people died from the disease. During 1933, only 15 cases and four deaths were reported. The rapid improvement came from a quarantine which was imposed by the federal government on the shipping of parrots and similar birds between the states.

Since that time our public health services have been engaged in a continuous battle to eliminate psittacosis in susceptible birds. Infected birds have been destroyed and their importation has been prohibited.

There is far less likelihood of contracting psittacosis now that the number of infected birds has been so strictly controlled. Those who work with the virus in the laboratory, however, are likely to become infected and occasional infected birds are still found.

Psittacosis in human beings is something like virus or atypical pneumonia. Fortunately there are laboratory tests available which can be used to make the diagnosis definite.

So far as treatment is concerned, either serum taken from a victim of the disease who is convalescing or a goat serum which has been produced, seems to shorten the course of human psittacosis. Probably more important are the antibiotic relatives of penicillin, from several of which good results in treatment have been reported.

If psittacosis had not been attacked promptly by preventive measures and if the custom of keeping love birds, parrots or parakeets in the home were more common than it is, the problem would have been much worse. Even today, one who keeps birds of this kind should make sure that their pets are healthy.

BACK TO WORK—In Washington, Gen. Hoyt Vandenberg, right, visits with President Truman at the White House. Vandenberg, Air Force Chief of Staff, returned to duty after a four-month absence because of illness, which was reported to have been cancer.

Astronomers Ban Talk On "Flying Saucers"

ROME (AP)—The world's greatest experts on the secrets of the skies met here today—but flying saucers were a forbidden topic.

Leading astronomers of 35 nations are among the 430 delegates gathered for the eighth General Assembly of the International Astronomical Union.

Flying saucers are not the only subject of public speculation which the stargazers are giving the go-by. Discussion of possible life on other planets also will be avoided.

"The congress will discuss only positive facts concerning astronomy," said Prof. Lucio Gialanella, the union's secretary-general.
